THE COUNTY CONVENTION.

This morning, at ten o'clock, the delegates elected at the primary meetings held on Saturday will assemble in County Convention, at the Court House, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the State and National Union Republican Conventions, and to take action on the proposed change in the present system of nominating candidates for office in Allegheny county. The delegates, so far as we are acquainted with them, are men of wisdom, experience and judgment, are capable of satisfactorily transacting the important business for which the Convention is called. It is to be hoped that none but able delegates will be selected to represent loyal Allegheny county in the State and National councils, and that harmony and good feeling will mark the proceedings to-day.

THE New York Evening Post learns "from Washington, that some Pennsylvania protectionists are getting ready to spring a trick upon Congress"—the trick consisting in the preparation of a new tariff "to suit their notions and special interests," to be submitted to and reported by the Committee on Manufactures, and then "rushed" through Congress. All this is not only news to the people of Pennsylvania, but must have seemed to its own readers entirely unreliable, when they might remember that tariffs are measures, above all others, which never have been and never could be "rushed" through Congress without the most protracted and thorough discussion. But the discussion and settlement of delicate questions often prove as embarrassing to people who are not sure of the ground they stand upon as in the experience of the criminal who, when assured at his trial that he should have justice, confessed that this was the only thing he was afraid of. The apprehensions of the Post may have that foundation, if none other.

THE WRIT of quo warranto against MR. STANTON, will be applied for, it is said, at an early day of this week. When granted, and served upon the Secretary, he will have a month for making his answer. The final decision of the highest appellate tribunal, upon the questions which are certain to arise under such a writ, would undoubtedly be received with great satisfaction by all parties; but, unfortunately, that decision could not reasonably be hoped for until the next winter term of the Supreme Court—quite too late, even if favorable to their views, to be of any practical use to the President and his advisers. We, therefore, look upon all this talk about a quo warranto, among the supporters of Executive usurpations, as only intended to amuse the public, to distract its attention from the present vital issues and never seriously to be followed up in good faith or with the expectation of any legal and effective advantage to result to MR. JOHNSON and his cabal.

THE Republican Convention of Berks county, held on Saturday afternoon, made selections for Presidential electors, and delegates to the National Convention. The Delegates were instructed to support GRANT for the President. There were no instructions as to Vice President, but a resolution was adopted declaring Ex-Governor CURTIN the first choice of the Republicans of Berks.

JUDGE PETTIS, of Meadville, has been unanimously elected Senatorial Delegate for Erie and Crawford counties, to the Philadelphia State Convention.

A. M. BROWN, ESQ. FOR CONGRESS.

MESSRS. EDITORS GAZETTE:—The successorship to Gen. J. K. Moorhead, member of Congress from this District, excites considerable attention throughout the county. Several prominent business men have been put forward by newspaper correspondents for the nomination, and, without wishing to detract from the merits of any of those gentlemen, I trust you will permit me to suggest a name which will, beyond any doubt, find favor with every intelligent Republican in the District. I refer to Major A. M. BROWN—a lawyer of ripe experience, sound practical judgment, solid scholastic attainments, rare business capacity and high toned moral character. He is just the man for the position, possessing the essential qualities of head and heart to make him a worthy colleague of a Tom Williams, and a fit representative of our great and growing manufacturing and agricultural district in the National Assembly. He is comparatively young, full of life and vigor, and, if elected, would prove a working member of Congress, and one who could be relied on in all emergencies to act with force, wisdom, prudence and sagacity.

Mr. BROWN's services for the party are well known and duly appreciated in Western Pennsylvania. He has ever been a fearless, earnest and hearty advocate of the principles held by the Union Republican party—the principles of liberty, justice and equality, and is deserving a just recognition at the hands of his fellow citizens.

If he can be prevailed upon to accept the nomination, I venture to predict that he will receive the solid vote of the county, and will be carried into office by as large a majority as was ever awarded any gentleman for similar honor in this District. PITT.

—At Philadelphia, Saturday morning, a boiler exploded in the extensive drug and paint manufactory of Powers & Weightman, at Ninth and Brown streets, which was succeeded by fire. Nearly the whole block was destroyed, causing a loss of half a million of dollars. The essential oils and paints caused such a hot fire that the firemen could not reduce the flames to subjection, and for a long time it was feared that the conflagration would spread. Several persons were badly burned by the explosion, but none are believed to have been fatally injured. Fortunately few of the operatives had entered the building at the time of the explosion, or the loss of life would have been fearful. Quite a number of firemen were injured, and several horses were burned to death. The insurance is said to be heavy.

—At Worcester, Mass., Joseph Clark, the keeper of a gambling house, was robbed and murdered in his rooms on Friday night last. When found his head was split open, with his brains protruding, and a rope was tightly twisted around his neck. Kerosene oil had been poured over his head and body, and his bed had been set on fire. His watch, money and dimond ring were taken. Two men are suspected, and one of them, Silvas Green, of North Greenwich, R. I., is under arrest.

—The amount paid into the National Treasury from the sales of confiscated and captured cotton, under the provisions of the bill which passed the Senate last week, is nearly thirty millions. The final passage of this bill will prove a severe check upon claimants, who, to be successful, must pass a very severe ordeal as to their position and record during the war before the Court of Claims will entertain their cases.

—A Romeo correspondent of the Detroit Post remarks: "A railroad from Detroit via Utica, Disco, Washington, Romeo, and Almont to Bay City, is proposed, and will meet with much favor from the people all along the line. If the business men of Detroit will do their part the road can be built and put in operation at an early day."

—In the Massachusetts House of Representatives, the new liquor license bill was refused a third reading by a vote of 162 to 62.

Impeachment Court Rules.

Discussed in the Senate.

House Impeachment Articles.

Report of the Committee.

Debate to be Continued To-day.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29, 1868.

SENATE.

The CHAIR submitted a memorial of the Legislature of Missouri, asking aid to repair the levees on the Mississippi river. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

Mr. NYE presented the petition of Captain R. W. Lead, U. S. N., to be placed on the active list. Referred.

Mr. NYE offered a resolution inquiring of the Secretary of the Treasury for what reason the salary of the Governor of Idaho is withheld. Adopted.

Mr. THAYER introduced a bill to abolish the office of Adjutant General of the Army. Referred to Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. CRAGIN introduced a bill to provide for holding United States Courts in Territories. Referred.

IMPEACHMENT RULES.

On motion of Mr. HOWARD, the Senate proceeded to the consideration of the report of the Select Committee of seven in respect to impeachment.

Mr. DAVIS offered a substitute for Mr. Howard's report, providing that the Senate should not take action as to impeachment til all the States are represented, and took the floor in support of the motion.

The motion was lost, Messrs. McCREARY and DAVIS only voting in the affirmative.

The Senate took up the rules section by section.

A long discussion took place on the use of the words "Senate resolved itself into a high court of impeachment," in the thirty-fifth section.

A debate also took place on the power of the Senate to constitute itself a Court to try the President, while so many States were not represented.

Mr. DAVIS contended that the Senate could not do so. His argument being controverted by Messrs. Morton, Johnson and others, Mr. Davis offered a motion that the report of the Committee be recommitted, with instructions to report a substitute. Lost.

Mr. HENDRICKS moved to strike out the 27th paragraph, on the ground that the Senate had no right to prescribe rules for its mode of proceeding during the trial, but the question was not taken.

The articles were then read to the fourth, when a debate sprung up on the status of the Senate. Mr. MORTON contended that under that section its status was no longer that of a Senate, but of a Court.

Mr. SHERMAN said the character of the Senate would not be changed any more than when in Committee.

The debate was continued in criticism of the words, viz.: "grand inquisition of the nation," but Mr. EDMUNDS stated the fathers of the Constitution had used these words in such proceedings.

Further debate was had on the use of the words "High Court of Impeachment."

Mr. FERRY moved to strike out the word high wherever it occurred before the word Court. Lost.

Mr. SAULSBURY moved to strike from the sixth section the clause empowering the presiding officer of the Court of Impeachment to call in the assistance of the army to enforce his commands.

Considerable debate followed on the powers of the Senate as a Court to enforce its judgment.

Messrs. SAULSBURY and BUCKALEW contended against such power belonging to the Senate.

Mr. SHERMAN said the Constitution provided for enforcement of judgments, and moved to strike out the word judgment. Agreed to.

Mr. TRUMBULL thought the wisest course was to take the rules adopted seventy years ago, upon which five trials had taken place. He moved to strike out the proviso and insert "the presiding officer shall also be authorized to direct the employment of the Marshal of the District of Columbia or any other person, during the trial, to discharge such duty as may be prescribed for him." Agreed to—25 to 15.

Mr. TRUMBULL then moved to add a proviso authorizing the Sergeant-at-Arms, under the direction of the presiding officer, to employ such assistance as may be necessary to enforce the execution and carry into effect all lawful orders of the Court. Agreed to.

Mr. DRAKE moved to strike out a portion of the sixth section, providing that the Court shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses.

Mr. JOHNSON moved to adjourn. Lost.

Mr. DRAKE'S amendment was lost.

The twelfth article having been read, Mr. SUMNER called attention to the clause providing that on adjournment of the Court the Senate shall resume legislative and executive of business, but made no motion to amend, and the section was adopted.

It being evident, when the twenty-first article was reached, a lengthy debate would follow, the Senate, on motion of Mr. ARMSTRONG, adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The consideration of the bill declaring void the present contract for the Jail in the District of Columbia, and providing for a new contract, appropriating $200,000 and requiring the City of Washington to pay $78,000 and Georgetown $12,000, as their proportion of the cost, was resumed, and after a debate, during which an amendment was adopted enabling the Board of Commissioners appointed by the bill to select one of their number as Supervisory Architect, was passed.

Various petitions were presented.

Mr. McCORMICK presented the resolutions of the Missouri Legislature on the subject of levees. Referred to the Committee on Freedmen's Affairs.

Under the call of the Committee on Claims for bills, several were reported and passed; also, a joint resolution for the relief of John M. Paulmer, of Nashville, Tenn., relieving him from forfeiture under a contract to furnish fifty-two thousand coffins for deceased soldiers, &c. Passed.

ARTICLES OF IMPEACHMENT.

At a quarter past two o'clock Mr. BOUTWELL, Chairman of the Select Committee, presented Articles of Impeachment against the President of the United States, which were thereupon read by the Clerk, as follows:

Articles Exhibited by the House of Representatives of the United States, in the name of themselves and all the People of the United States, against Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, as the Maintenance and Support of their Impeachment against Him for High Crimes and Misdemeanors in Office.

ARTICLE 1. That said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, on the 21st day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, at Washington, in the District of Columbia, unmindful of the high duties of his office, of his oath of office, and of the requirements of the Constitution that he should take care that the laws be faithfully executed, did unlawfully, and in violation of the Constitution and laws of the United States, issue an order, in writing, for the removal of Edwin M. Stanton from the office of Secretary for the Department of War, said Edwin M. Stanton having been theretofore duly appointed and commissioned by and with the consent of the Senate of the United States as such Secretary, and said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, on the 12th day of August, in the year of our Lord, 1867, and during the recess of the said Senate, having suspended by his order Edwin M. Stanton from office, and within twenty days after the first day of the next meeting of said Senate, on the 12th day of December, in the year of our Lord aforesaid, having reported to said Senate such suspension, with the evidence and reasons for his action in the case, in the name of the person designated to perform the duties of such office temporarily until the next meeting of the Senate, and said Senate thereafterwards, on the 13th day of January, in the year of our Lord, 1868, having duly considered the evidence and reasons reported by said Andrew Johnson for said suspension, did refuse to concur in said suspension, whereby and by force of the provisions of an act entitled "an act regulating the tenure of certain offices," passed March 2d, 1867, said Edwin M. Stanton did forthwith resume the functions of his office, whereof the said Andrew Johnson had then and there due notice, and said Edwin M. Stanton, by reason of the premises, on said 21st day of February, was lawfully entitled to hold said office of Secretary for the Department of War, which said order for the removal of said Edwin M. Stanton is in substance as follows, that is to say:

Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., February 21, 1868.—Sir: By virtue of the power and authority vested in me, as President, by the Constitution and laws of the United States, you are hereby removed from office as Secretary for the Department of War, and your functions as such will terminate upon the receipt of this communication. You will transfer to Brevet Major General Lorenzo Thomas, Adjutant General of the Army, who has this day been authorized and empowered to act as Secretary of War ad interim, all records, books, papers and other public property now in your custody and charge.

Respectfully yours,
ANDREW JOHNSON.
To Hon. E. M. STANTON, Washington, D. C.

Which order was unlawfully issued, with intent then and there to violate the act entitled "an act regulating the tenure of certain civil offices," passed March 2d, 1867, and contrary to the provisions of said act, and in violation thereof and contrary to the provisions of the Constitution of the United States, and without the advice and consent of the Senate of the United States, the said Senate then and there being in session, to remove said Edwin M Stanton from the office of Secretary for the Department of War, whereby said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, did then and there commit and was guilty of a high misdemeanor in office.

ARTICLE 2. That on the said 21st day of February, in the year of our Lord 1868, at Washington, in the District of Columbia, said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, unmindful of the high duties of his office, of his oath of office, and in violation of the Constitution of the United States, and contrary to the provisions of an act entitled "an act regulating the tenure of certain civil offices," passed March 2d, 1867, without the advice and consent of the Senate of the United States, said Senate then and there being in session, and without authority of law, did appoint one Lorenzo Thomas to be Secretary of War ad interim, by issuing to said L. Thomas a letter of authority in substance as follows, viz.:

Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., February 21, 1868.—Sir: Hon. Edwin M. Stanton having been this day removed from office as Secretary for the Department of War, you are hereby authorized and empowered to act as Secretary of War ad interim, and will immediately enter upon the discharge of the duties pertaining to that office. Mr. Stanton has been instructed to transfer to you all the records, books, papers and other public property now in his custody and charge. Respectfully yours,
ANDREW JOHNSON.
To Brevet Maj. Gen. LORENZO THOMAS, Adj't. Gen. U. S. A., Washington, D. C.

Whereby said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, did then and there commit and was guilty of a high misdemeanor in office.

ARTICLE 3. That said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, on the 21st day of February, in the year of our Lord 1868, at Washington, in the District of Columbia, did commit and was guilty of high misdemeanor in office in this, that without authority of law, while the Senate of the United States was then and there in session, he did appoint one Lorenzo Thomas to be Secretary of the Department of War ad interim, without the advice and consent of the Senate, and in violation of the Constitution of the United States, no vacancy having happened in said office of Secretary for the Department of War during the recess of the Senate, and no vacancy existing in said office at the time, and which said appointment so made by the said Andrew Johnson of the said Lorenzo Thomas is in substance as follows:

Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., February 21, 1868.—Sir: Hon. E. M. Stanton having been this day removed from office as Secretary for the Department of War, you are hereby authorized and empowered to act as Secretary of War ad interim, and will immediately enter upon the discharge of duties pertaining to that office. Mr. Stanton has been instructed to transfer to you all the records, books, papers and other public property now in his custody and charge. Respectfully yours,
ANDREW JOHNSON.
To Brevet Maj. Gen. LORENZO THOMAS, Adj't. Gen. U. S. A., Washington, D. C.

ARTICLE 1. That said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, unmindful of the high duties of his office, and of his oath of office, in violation of the Constitution and laws of the United States, on the 21st of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, at Washington, in the District of Columbia, did unlawfully conspire with one Lorenzo Thomas, and with other persons to the House of Representatives unknown, with intent by intimidation and threats, to hinder and prevent Edwin M. Stanton, then and there the Secretary for the Department of War, duly appointed under the laws of the United States, from holding said office of Secretary for the Department of War, contrary to and in violation of the Constitution of the United States and provisions of an act entitled "an act to define and punish certain conspiracies," approved July 31st, 1861, whereby said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, did then and there commit and was guilty of a high crime in office.

ARTICLE 5. That the said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, unmindful of the duties of his office, and of his oath of office, on the 28th day of February, in the year of our Lord 1868, and on divers other days and times in said year, before the 28th day of said February, at Washington, in the District of Columbia, did unlawfully conspire with one Lorenzo Thomas, and with other persons to the House of Representatives unknown, by force to prevent and hinder the execution of an act entitled "an act regulating the tenure of certain civil offices," passed March 2d, 1867, and in pursuance of said conspiracy did attempt to prevent Edwin M. Stanton, then and there Secretary for the Department of War, duly appointed and commissioned under the laws of the United States, from holding said office, whereby the said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, did then and there commit and was guilty of a high misdemeanor in office.

ARTICLE 6. That said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, unmindful of the duties of his high office, and of his oath of office, on the 21st day of February, in the year of our Lord 1868, at Washington, in the District of Columbia, did unlawfully conspire with one Lorenzo Thomas by force to seize and take possession of the property of the United States in the War Department, contrary to the provisions of an act entitled "an act to define and punish certain conspiracies," approved July 31st, 1861, and with intent to violate and disregard an act entitled "an act regulating the tenure of certain civil officers," passed March 2d, 1867, whereby the said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, did then and there commit a high crime in office.

ARTICLE 7. That said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, unmindful of the high duties of his office and his oath of office, on the 21st day of February, in the year of our Lord 1868, and on divers other days in said year, before the 28th day of said February, at Washington, in the District of Columbia, did unlawfully conspire with one Lorenzo Thomas to prevent and hinder the execution of an act of the United States, entitled "an act regulating the tenure of certain civil offices," passed March 2d, 1867, and in pursuance of said conspiracy, did unlawfully attempt to prevent Edwin M. Stanton, then and there being Secretary of the Department of War under the laws of the United States, from holding said office, to which he had been duly appointed and commissioned, whereby said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, did then and there commit and was guilty of a high misdemeanor in office.

ARTICLE 8. That said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, unmindful of the high duties of his office and his oath of office, on the 21st day of February, in the year of our Lord 1868, at Washington, in the District of Columbia, did unlawfully conspire with one Lorenzo Thomas to seize and take possession of the property of the United States in the War Department, with intent to violate and disregard an act entitled "an act regulating the tenure of certain civil offices," passed March 2d, 1867, whereby said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, did then and there commit a high misdemeanor in office.

ARTICLE 9. That said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, unmindful of the high duties of his office and of his oath of office, with intent unlawfully to control the disbursement of the moneys appropriated for the military service and for the Department of War, on the 21st day of February, in the year of our Lord 1868, at Washington, in the District of Columbia, did unlawfully and contrary to the provisions of an act entitled "an act regulating the tenure of certain civil offices," passed March 7, 1867, and in violation of the Constitution of the United States, and without the advice and consent of the Senate of the United States, and while the Senate was then and there in session, there being no vacancy in the office of Secretary for the Department of War, appoint Lorenzo Thomas Secretary of War ad interim, and then and there deliver to said Lorenzo Thomas a letter in writing, in substance as follows, viz.:

Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., February 21, 1868.—SIR: Hon. E. M. Stanton having been this day removed from office as Secretary of the Department of War, you are hereby authorized and empowered to act as Secretary of War ad interim, and will immediately enter upon the discharge of the duties pertaining to that office. Mr. Stanton has been instructed to transfer to you all the records, books, papers and other public property now in his custody and charge. Respectfully yours,
ANDREW JOHNSON.
To Brevet Maj. Gen. L. THOMAS, Adjutant General, U. S. A., Washington, D. C.

Whereby said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, did then and there commit and was guilty of a high misdemeanor in office.

ARTICLE 10. That said Andrew Johnston, President of the United States, on the 22d day of February, in the year of our Lord 1868, at Washington, in the District of Columbia, in disregard of the Constitution and laws of Congress duly enacted, as Commander-in-Chief of the army of the United States, did bring before himself then and there William A. Emery, a Major General by brevet in the army of the United States, actually in command of the Department of Washington and military forces thereof, and did then and there, as such Commander-in-Chief, declare and instruct said Emery that part of a law of the United States, passed March 2d, 1867, entitled "an act making appropriations for the support of the army for the year ending June 30th, 1868, and for other purposes," especially second section thereof, which provides among other things that all orders and instructions relating to military operations issued by the President or Secretary of War shall be issued through the General of the army, and in case of his inability, through the next in rank, was unconstitutional and in contravention of the commission of said Emery, and therefore not binding on him as an officer in the Army of the United States, which said provision of law had been theretofore duly and legally promulgated by a general order for the government and direction of the Army of the United States, as said Andrew Johnson then and there well knew, with intent thereby to induce said Emery, in his official capacity as commander of the Department of Washington, to violate the provisions of said act, and to take and receive and act upon and obey such orders as he, Andrew Johnson, might make and give, and which should not be issued through the General of the Army of the United States, according to the provision of the said act, whereby said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, did then and there commit and was guilty of a high misdemeanor in office.

And the House of Representatives by protestation saving to themselves the liberty of exhibiting at any time hereafter any further articles or further accusation against said Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, and also of replying to his answers which he shall make to the articles herein preferred against him, and of offering proof to the same and every part thereof, and to all and every other article, accusation or impeachment which shall be exhibited by them, as the case shall require, do demand that the said Andrew Johnson may be put to answer the high crimes and misdemeanors in office herein charged against him, and that such proceedings, examinations, trials and judgments may be thereupon had and given as may be agreeable to law and justice.

DEBATE ON THE ARTICLES.

The reading of the articles having been completed, Mr. ELDRIDGE sought the floor, but the Speaker declined to recognize him, and the House went into Committee of the Whole, Mr. WASHBURNE, of Illinois, in the Chair, in conformity with the prior order of the House for the consideration of articles of impeachment.

Mr. BOUTWELL stated the articles, except the tenth, were founded on proof before the House; that the tenth article was found on the testimony of General Emery.

After explaining the articles to some extent, Mr. BOUTWELL said the Committee had no particular regard as to the articles, and would be governed by the decision of the House.

Mr. BURR spoke against the adoption of the articles, characterizing the whole movement as partizan and centering around the men Stanton and Benjamin Wade. The people of the United States believed, and he (Mr. Burr) believed, that the motive of the President in removing Stanton was to test the constitutionality of the Tenure of Office Bill. He did not blame the President for removing Stanton, but blamed him only for having tolerated such a man in his Cabinet. Had Stanton possessed honesty or self-respect, this disgraceful scene would never have been enacted on the face of the Continent, as he would have retired from office. He felt, however, that it was not very safe to say much against the Secretary of War, so long as he had control of the bastiles to which he had consigned so many who had offended him during the war. He referred to the telegraphic message recently read in the House from a drunken Governor of his own State.

Mr. INGERSOLL called him to order and denied the insinuation made against Governor Oglesby.

Mr. BURR said the gentleman might defend Governor Oglesby when he got the floor.

Mr. INGERSOLL said it was not proper to slander one not a member of the House.

Mr. BURR trusted Oglesby never would be a member of this or any other House.

Mr. INGERSOLL thought it good for his colleague (Mr. Burr) that Governor Oglesby was not here to-day.

Mr. BURR declined to yield to interruptions, and remarked that no sober man would have done what Governor Oglesby had done in sending that inflamatory telegram.

Mr. INGERSOLL having obtained the floor, declared that Governor Oglesby was one of nature's nobleman; that no better, more patriotic, or upright man existed. The people of Illinois had endorsed him by nearly sixty thousand majority against his Democratic competitor at the last gubernatorial election. Whoever slandered Governor Oglesby, slandered a man who carried in his body a minnie ball fired from a rebel musket at Fort Donelson. Governor Oglesby had perilled his life in defence of the republic, and was notoriously a sober man, and was a man of brave, patriotic heart; but the Knights of the Golden Circle would assail him and strike him down.

Mr. BURR remarked if his colleague (Mr. Ingersoll) intended to say he (Mr. Burr) was a Knight of the Golden Circle, he was falsifying.

Mr. INGERSOLL said he did not hear his colleague's remark.

Mr. BURR repeated it, and said he trusted his colleague would understand him.

Mr. INGERSOLL said he had made no insinuations against him in reference to the Knights of the Golden Circle.

Mr. COOK asked whether it was not true that all the Knights of the Golden Circle had voted with his colleague (Mr. Burr) against Gov. Ogglesby?

Mr. INGERSOLL could not answer positively, but had no doubt it was so.

Mr. BURR did not know anything about the Knights of the Golden Circle, but did not think they were worse than the Loyal League, whose work had been mischief all the time.

Mr. BOUTWELL sustained the articles of impeachment, and said the time had come when Andrew Johnson should be accepted as the Autocrat of the country, or when Congress should do its duty under the Constitution. He went on to speak of political questions generally and to defend Governor Oglesby against the assertions of Mr. Burr, but Mr. SPALDING made the point of order that rambling political discussions were not in order, but that the debate should be confined to the articles of impeachment.

Mr. RANDALL inquired how that could be done, when the House had only just heard the articles read?

The Chairman, Mr. DAWES, sustained the point of order.

Mr. BOUTWELL adapted himself to the ruling and went on to sustain the articles of impeachment.

Mr. ALLISON sustained the articles of impeachment and hoped they would be substantially adopted by the House. There was no other course left to Congress but to proceed with the impeachment of Andrew Johnson.

Mr. RANDALL spoke against impeachment, believing the removal of Mr. Stanton was the plain constitutional prerogative of the President, and adding "Were I the President, as I am a Representative, I would defy, as I do here this day, any power on earth to intervene between myself and the people, I represent for the inviolability of my oath of office."

Mr. KERR inquired of Mr. Boutwell whether there would be reported to the House any further testimony than is already printed?

Mr. BOUTWELL replied the Committee had no purpose to report further testimony.

Mr. MYERS advocated the adoption of articles.

The debate was continued by Messrs. LAWRENCE, O., STEVENS, N. H., and MULLINS, in favor, and Messrs. VAN AUKEN and MORGAN against impeachment.

Mr. JENCKS gave notice of an intention to offer an amendment to the articles of impeachment. He proposed, he said, to set up facts alleged and couple them with the averment that the acts and declarations of the President show a criminal intent on his part to exercise the powers and authority of Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy, in accordance with the rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces, in violation of an act of Congress and of the Constitution.

Mr. BOUTWELL suggested Mr. Jencks embody his views in a separate article, and Mr. Jencks said he would.

Mr. BUTLER obtained the floor and the Committee took a recess till Monday morning at ten o'clock.

A notification was given by Mr. BLAINE that there would be a Republican caucus in the room of the House this evening.

SOUTHERN STATES.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, February 29.—The Convention was engaged in discussing the suffrage question. A vote will be taken on Monday.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, March 1.—The Convention was yesterday occupied in discussing the Judicial Department of the Constitution, and ten or twelve sections were adopted. They provide for the election of Judges by the Legislature and of Attorney General by the people. The per diem and mileage of members have been paid to date.

GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, February 29.—The Convention to-day resolved unanimously to request Congress to make a liberal appropriation for building an air line Railroad from Atlanta to Charleston.

A motion to adjourn sine die was lost.

A motion to reconsider the action of yesterday, in tabling a resolution endorsing the course of Congress in reference to impeachment, was lost—yeas, sixty; nays, sixty-two.

Mr. Holcomb moved the Convention adjourn to meet on the third Tuesday in May, and remain in session as long as may be necessary for the protection of the loyal Georgians and the Congress of the United States. The Convention will probably not adjourn till the 17th of March.

ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, Feb. 29.—The Conservative Executive Committee call a Convention of white people, without distinction of old political parties, opposed to negro domination and radical misrule in the Government, at Montgomery, on the first Monday of June, to take measures to sustain and co-operate with the National Democrats of the Union in the approaching election for President and Vice President. They also appointed a Committee of five to repair to Washington and remain there as long as necessary to represent the political interests of their people, and keep the people at the North advised of the state of affairs in Alabama. The names of the Committee are Peter M. Knox, J. J. Giers, Lee Parsons, H. H. Randall and John Forsythe.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, February 29.—The Convention adopted the articles of the Constitution, as revised by the Special Committee, to No. 142. A resolution was introduced and lies over, authorizing the printing and issue of ten thousand copies of the Constitution.

MISSISSIPPI.

JACKSON, February 29.—A resolution was offered in the Convention last night, and referred to the proper Committee, setting forth the old charges against Merriam and an additional charge of slanderous publication in the "Clarion." Nothing of importance was done to-day.

VARIOUS TELEGRAMS.

—A daring robbery was committed on Friday night at Kassinger's mills, three miles from Reading, Pa. Charles Long was attacked in his mill by four men disguised. They shot at him with pistols, and robbed him of fifteen hundred dollars, and left him tied. His house was entered by the same party and five thousand in government bonds, two thousand in greenbacks, and two thousand in gold taken. No arrests.

—The Philadelphia Gas Works will be taken possession of to-day by the Mayor of that city, by virtue of a city ordinance. The works have heretofore been managed by trustees, but hereafter they will be operated as a department of the city government. It is reported that the trustees will resist the seizure by force, having already filed a bill in Court against it.

Case of Gen. Nagle.

Train Volunteers as a Juror.

Close of the German Diet.

Speech of King William.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ENGLAND.

LONDON, February 29.—In the case of General Nagle, on trial on a charge of fenianism at Sligo, the motion for delay of trial made by counsel for defense was refused. On the announcement of the decision by the Court, Mr. Heron moved to transfer the case to the Court of Queen's Bench, in order that the trial might take place elsewhere. The chief ground for this motion, Mr. Heron said, was the fact that there were not six Americans in the whole city of Sligo, and therefore it would be impossible to select a mixed jury.

At this moment George Francis Train, who happened to be in Sligo rather unexpectedly, appeared before the Court and volunteered to become one of the American jurors. The offer was declined.

Mr. Heron's motion was argued at length, when the Court refused to transfer the trial to another place. The case was then proceeded with.

The Times has an editorial on the trial of General Nagle. The writer strongly urges the abandonment of the prosecution, saying: "The point of law involved is, to say the least, questionable."

LONDON, EVENING, February 29.—Little progress has been made in the trial of the Fenian prisoners at Sligo. Most of the time to-day was consumed in an effort to impannel a jury. In order to procure a mixed jury it became necessary to summon six Prussians, but as they soon after absconded, the trial was adjourned until Monday.

True bills have also been found against Nugent, Kean, Fitzsimmons, Fitzgibon, Leonard, O'Connor and Leby, and the prisoners will accordingly be brought to trial without delay.

Later news from the captives in Abyssinia has been received. They were still safe and well at Mogedala. The advance of the English army had arrived at a place near Antalo. The Tigre people were everywhere friendly. There was no sickness among the troops.

George Sclater Booth, M. P. for North Harts, will succeed George W. Hunt as under Secretary of the Treasury.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, February 29.—The King formally closed the Diet last evening. In his speech the King congratulated the members on the success of their labors. The effort of the Diet to ensure the peace of Europe had been promptly and powerfully sustained by the other Great Powers, and the confidence thus restored will aid in the spiritual and temporal welfare of the nation.

MUNICH, February 29.—Louis, second King of Bavaria, died yesterday, aged only 22 years.

BERLIN, March 1.—In his speech, in closing the Prussian Diet on Friday, the King expressed himself entirely satisfied with the legislation of the past session, and declared he was sure no cause was now left for the disturbance of the peace in Germany or Europe.

Democratic Meeting at Philadelphia.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, February 29.—An immense Democratic meeting was held to-night. Resolutions were adopted protesting against the usurpations of Congress in attempting to destroy the constitutional powers of the Executive and Judicial Departments of the Government, they being co-ordinate and co-equal with the Legislative, and alike beyond its control, and declaring that "we will sustain and support the Executive and Judicial Departments against the usurpations of Congress, and give our aid and comfort to the President in acts which are for the defense of the Union and the Constitution against Legislative treason; that all persons who seek to prevent this may justly be regarded as enemies to the peace and welfare of the community, and all who stimulate to violence, whether they be Governors of States or members of the Legislature, should be denounced as traitors to the Constitution and Laws they have sworn to protect; that the white race is the governing source of all political power under the Constitution, and, as people of the United States, we will never submit to any policy of Congress which proposes to give the negro race either political power or social equality."

California News.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The Republican State Central Committee, being dissatisfied with the action of the Union Central Committee, have resolved to send delegates to the National Convention, to be held at Chicago, and to nominate electors for California.

A petition has been presented to the Senate asking the Legislature to inquire whether the land and moneys granted the Central Pacific Railroad are absolute gifts, and if the lands are to be used only in building the road east of Sacramento? And also, whether the Trustees have not made themselves a close corporation in relation to all stock by distributing the money among themselves and buying the Sacramento Valley, Marysville and Western Pacific Railroad, and announcing its intention to control all railroads in the State. Also, of interfering with politics in San Francisco and Sacramento, and of employing lobbyists at Washington. Referred to a special committee who will enquire and report.

The State Senate to-day passed resolutions favoring Congressional action and the impeachment of the President.

WASHINGTON, February 29, 1868.

DEBATE ON IMPEACHMENT ARTICLES.

About forty members have entered their names with the Speaker as candidates for the floor in the discussion of the Impeachment Articles. The debate will accordingly occupy ten hours, each of the speakers being limited by the rule to fifteen minutes. There will be a session to-night for debate, the vote on the Articles being fixed for Monday at four o'clock.

The New York Herald's Washington special states that business of an official character will probably be suspended between the President and the Senate until the conclusion of his trial.

THE QUO WARRANTO.

It was expected that an application would be made to-day before Judge Wylie, holding Circuit Court, for a writ of quo warranto, but those having the matter in charge, desiring to have every point maturely considered, and the papers arranged in such perfect form that no exception could be taken when the matter is brought before the Courts, it was decided to defer the application till early next week. It may be presented on Monday. The course of procedure will be as follows: Application to be made in open Court for leave to file an information in the nature of a quo warranto. This application it is presumed will be granted as a matter of course. Mr. Stanton will be served with a summons to appear and answer. This he has a month in which to do, but it is supposed he will not avail himself of the time allowed by law, but at once respond, when an early day may be fixed for the hearing of the case.

FINANCIAL—THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The fractional currency issued for the week was $462,000; amount forwarded, $520,540, including $100,000 to the Assistant Treasurer at St. Louis. National Bank Notes issued, $82,480. Fractional currency redeemed and destroyed, $527,100. Receipts of Internal Revenue for the week, $3,534,666.

The Public Debt Statement will not be issued before the 5th or 6th. It is estimated the showing will be very favorable, and the debt be reduced considerably below the figures in December.

THE TESTIMONY OF GEN. EMERY.

The following is General Emery's testimony relative to his interview with the President on the 22d of February:

The President asked me if I recollected the conversation I had with him, when I first took command of the Department, in reference to the strength of the garrison of Washington and the general disposition of troops in this Department. To which I replied I did not recollect it distinctly. He asked me if there had been any changes. I replied there had been no material changes, but such as had been I could state at once. I then went on to state that six companies of the 29th Infantry had been brought here to winter, but that they had been offset by detaching four companies of the 12th Infantry to Charleston, on a requisition of General Canby; that two companies of the 14th Artillery had been detached during General Canby's command of the Department; one of them, sent to the Northern frontier to assist in putting down Fenian difficulties, had been returned to their regiment, stationed at Fort McHenry, Baltimore; that though the command had been increased in the number of companies, I was under the impression there was a reduction in the numerical strength of the command, growing out of the reduction of infantry and artillery companies from the maximum of the war establishment to the minimum of the peace establishment, but this was more than offset by the gain of additional companies. The President said: "I refer to more recent changes." I said I did not know exactly what he referred to by recent changes; that there had not been any made to my knowledge; that if he would give me some idea of who had made the report to him, or what the report was which he had received, I could perhaps give him a more definite answer. He said reports had reached him that within the last day or two certain new arrangements of troops had been made. I assured him none had been made with my knowledge, and did not believe any had been made without it; that under recent orders, founded upon laws of Congress, for the government of the armies of the United States, approved by him, no order could come to me except through Gen. Grant, and that reasoning from analogy it was assumed in the army that if an order could be given to any one under my command, without coming through me, that if by any possibility an order had been given without coming through me, it was the duty of the officer receiving it to notify me. He then asked me "What order do you refer to?" I stated I referred to order No. 15 or 17, I could not recollect which, that had been published to the army some time in May last. He said "I wish to see the order." I replied that I would send for it. He said "No; I have all the orders about the house," and a messenger was sent for it. At that time Colonel Cooper came in and occupied the President's attention for some time upon another subject, as I supposed, for I withdrew to the other end of the room. While there a messenger came and brought the order. After Colonel Cooper had gone out, I returned to the President, with this order in my hand, and said, "Mr. President, I will take it as a great favor if you will permit me to call your attention to this order, or act. It passed in an appropriation bill and it is possible you may never have seen it." He took the order and read it, and observed, "This is not in accordance with the Constitution of the United States, which makes me Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, or with the language of the commission which you hold." I stated to him that was no matter for officers to determine, it was an order sent to us, approved by him, and we were all governed by that order.

Question—Do you mean that the order, or the act, was approved by the President?

Answer—I mean the act, but as far as that was concerned the order and act approved by him are the same thing, for the order contained nothing but the act. He said, "Am I to understand that the President of the United States cannot give an order but through the General-in-Chief or General Grant?" I replied "Mr. President, that is the order which you approved and which has been issued for the government of the army, and I think it due to you to say that when that order first came out it was very much discussed in the army, and some leading lawyers of the country were consulted as to what was the duty of an officer under that law and order, "and I observed, "one consulted, and I consider him perhaps one of the greatest Constitutional lawyers in the country, gives it as his very decided opinion that we were bound by it, and I think it right to tell you that on this subject the army is a unit." He asked me who the lawyer was. I told him the one I consulted was a kinsman of mine, Robert J. Walker, and I had understood, though I did not know of my own knowledge, others had consulted Reverdy Johnson, who, it was reported, held the same opinion. The President replied: "The object of the law is very evident." After short pausing, seeing there was nothing more to say, I thanked him for the courtesy with which he had permitted me to express my opinion and left the house.

Question—Did the President in any form inquire whether you would obey an order if sent to you without going through the headquarters of the General?

Answer—As nearly as I can recollect there was not a word said that I have not put down, though I could, of course, not swear that I had put down every word uttered. You may see by my testimony I myself introduced the subject of order No. 17. There were a variety of rumors about town that Gen. Thomas had given orders, or had declared he was going to give orders. I thought it my duty to state the situation fairly and squarely to the President.

HOUSE IMPEACHMENT MANAGERS.

The Republicans held a caucus to-night, Mr. Poland in the chair. About seventy members were present. The only business was the selection of managers on the part of the House to conduct the impeachment proceedings before the Senate. The following were elected by ballot: Messrs. Stevens, Pennsylvania; Butler, Massachusetts; Bingham, Ohio; Boutwell, Massachusetts; Wilson, Iowa; Williams, Pennsylvania; and Logan, Illinois.

INTELLIGENCE FROM CRETE.

Accounts from Crete to February 8th describe the heroism of Coraks and his troops, numbering, according to the Grand Vizier's own estimate, upwards of 2,000 who attacked the Turks near a fortified cemetery outside the town of Canea, forcing the Turks to fall back into the citadel. A number were drowned during the retreat, fifty were killed by Cretan troops, one hundred and forty wounded and forty taken prisoners. The Turks, as usual, attacked the non-combatants, and slayed fifty after having robbed them of all valuables found in their possession. The irregular Turkish troops have also been guilty of similar atrocities in Rhetimo. The Provisional Government has issued another circular, addressed to representatives of Christian powers, declaring the Cretan people remain faithful to their vow of union with Greece.

THE TREATY WITH GERMANY CONCERNING NATURALIZATION.

Yesterday the Secretary of State sent a telegram to Minister Bancroft, to which the following answer was received this morning: Berlin, March 1.—Treaty signed and mailed on 22d February via England. It provides that emigration shall be free and that naturalization changes nationality. Hasten the ratification.

[Signed.] BANCROFT.

A few days ago some of the most prominent members of the Diplomatic Corps expressed disbelief in the cable dispatches on this subject, but to-day a member of the Committee on Foreign Affairs says he has no doubt of the fact that a treaty has been negotiated with the North German Confederation securing the object above stated, and they and gentlemen occupying high positions in our national administration believe this treaty will be soon followed by treaties of a similar character between the United States and other foreign governments, thus recognizing an American principle.

TENNESSEE WHISKEY INSURRECTION.

It was heretofore stated Collector Abernathy and his deputies had seized sundry whiskey stills in East Tennessee, but was afterward mobbed by persons concerned in the illicit trade, and secured their freedom by paying a ransom. These government officers promptly communicated with the Internal Revenue Bureau, asking for troops to enforce the law. The Bureau has obtained from the military authorities a favorable response to their application, and accordingly a company of cavalry has been dispatched to support the revenue officers in the Knoxville district, the scene of the whisky insurrection.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE.

It is believed by many Congressmen that Senator Thayer's bill to abolish the office of Adjutant General of the Army will become a law.

RELIEF BILL PASSED.

In the House of Representatives yesterday, a substitute for the Senate bill appropriating ten thousand dollars for the wife of Maj. Gen. Robert Anderson, was passed.

The Republican State Convention—The Choice for Vice President.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, March 1.—Forney's Press, having carefully analyzed the names of the delegates elected to the Republican State Convention of the 11th March, says seventy-six of the one hundred and one chosen have declared for or been instructed to vote for Gov. Curtin for Vice President, thirteen for Mr. Grow and eight for Gov. Geary. The course of four is undecided. Of the remaining thirty-two delegates yet to be elected Gov. Curtin's friends confidently claim a majority.

A Strange Story.

The Erie Dispatch says: A rather romantic story, which is, however, strictly true, has just come to our knowledge. It appears that some six months ago, a man whose name we did not learn, killed another man in New York city and escaped. Shortly after he was arrested some distance from the city by two policemen, one of whom he shot and killed. The other policemen fired at him and inflicted, as he supposed, a mortal wound, and hastened for assistance. On his return the body of the murderer could not be found, and doubts were expressed by many as to wether he had been shot as was represented. Some two months ago a stranger turned up in Willoughby, Ohio, and went to work as a shoemaker. His actions were suspicious, and a few days ago he was recognized by a former acquaintance as the murderer. He was arrested last week and taken to New York for trial. He says after he was shot by the policeman he made his way to a barn, where he lay for six weeks, subsisting wholly on wheat, which he shelled from the straw. From there he made his way to Willoughby where he was arrested.

Death of Gen. McCall.

General George A. McCall, one of Pennsylvania's gallant officers, died on the 24th instant at West Chester. He was from an excellent family, chose a military life, graduated at West Point in 1824, and served in the campaign against the Indians in Florida, where he acquired a good reputation. He afterwards served under General Taylor in Mexico, and was promoted to Brevet Colonel, and at the close of the war retired from the army. But on the breaking out of the rebellion he was called to duty as General of the Pennsylvania Reserves and fought gallantly and as a patriot on the right side till the end of the Peninsula campaign, when ill health forced him to resign. He was much respected by all who knew him, and adds one more to the noble army of patriots who have done their work and laid them down to rest.

Death and Appointment.—Philip S. Gerhard, who was last October elected Sheriff of Montgomery county, died a few days ago, at Norristown, after a brief illness, in the fifty-seventh year of his age. Gov. Geary has appointed General William J. Bolton, who was last fall the Republican candidate for Sheriff, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Sheriff Gerhard. Gen. B. is a strong Republican in politics, and will be the youngest Sheriff Montgomery county ever had.

Miss Barton's Lecture.—The lecture going community will bear in mind that Miss Clara Barton, the philanthropic lady who devoted years of toil and labor towards relieving and caring for suffering soldiers on the field, in the camp and hospital, makes her appearance to-night in the role of a lecturer at Masonic Hall, the entire proceeds to be devoted to the hospital home of the Grand Army of the Republic. We trust this gifted and worthy lady will be greeted by a large audience.

M. Du Chaillu, the celebrated traveller, who has thoroughly explored Africa, will lecture in this city, on the evening of the 10th inst., under the auspices of the Young Men's Mercantile Library Association. The Lecture Committee experienced great difficulty in obtaining the services of this gentleman, and they have the thanks of the intellectual community.

Logrenia, at the urgent solicitation of many friends, has consented to give five more of his entertainments at Masonic Hall, commencing to-morrow night. He is certainly the most finished and pleasing conjurer that ever visited our city, and presents an entertainment which must please all. He promises many novelties in the way of valuable gifts.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Wilkins—James Swisshelm, Wm. A. Shaw.
Mt. Washington—David B. Ferguson.

Attempted Escape.

An attempt to escape from jail by Michael Scahill, William Moore, Reddy Hughes, and two others whose names we did not learn, was frustrated by Warden White about one o'clock yesterday morning. Scahill and Moore occupy cell 31, and Saturday night Warden White, hearing an unusual noise in their cell, directed the watchman to keep a sharp lookout, and if he heard anything unusual to let him know. About twelve o'clock the noise was heard again and continued until one, when Mr. White was called, and, in company with his assistant, Mr. Smith, he entered the cell before the prisoners had time to conceal the tools with which they were working. They had broken from the iron bedstead a bar of iron about two feet in length, with which they were working a hole into the adjoining cell, the occupants of which were working in concert with them, and from which a hole is partly cut through the wall into the hall. Reddy Hughes occupies a cell on the opposite side of the hall, and the only evidence implicating him in the plot was the finding of a rope in his cell, which he had manufactured from his blanket and articles of old clothing. The rope was fully fifteen feet in length and strong enough to bear the weight of two ordinary men. Reddy disclaims any intention to attempt an escape, but says he made the rope for the purpose of hanging himself. Hughes and Scahill were sentenced on Saturday for larceny and arson, and will be taken to the Penitentiary today. Moore was indicted for burglary, will be tried at the ensuing term. The prisoners Schahill and Moore were removed to separate cells, and safely locked up.

Another Brawdy House Case—A Man Robbed of $200 and Severely Beaten

We have but little sympathy for the man who, in consequence of frequenting any of the vile dens of prostitution with which our city is so well supplied, is robbed of his money, or even if he receives a sound "body beating," yet this does not prevent us from protesting against the tolerance of these places by the city authorities. It is for the purpose of calling attention to the matter only that we give publicity to such cases as the following: James Hallman yesterday made information before Alderman McMasters charging Martin Brawdy with felonious assault and battery, in which he stated that on Friday night he visited a den of infamy on Pennsylvania avenue, kept by John Langdon, and that during his stay he was drugged and robbed of two hundred dollars. He left the premises the next morning in a semi-drunken state, and consequently did not discover his loss until he arrived at his hotel. He immediately returned to the house and demanded his money, when he was set upon by Martin Brawdy, who beat him with an iron poker, inflicting seven cuts on his head and face. He then returned and made the information as above, and also against John Langdon, Carry Fisher, Mary Acre, a girl named Alice, and Martin and Thomas Brawdy, charging them with keeping a disorderly house. The mother of two of these defendants is now in jail serving out a sentence for the same offence, and if the facts in this case be as stated her sons should keep her company.

Fatal Accident—Coroner's Inquest.

An accident occurred at the outer depot of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, on Sunday, which resulted in the death of James Bailey, employed by the Company as conductor or shifter of night passenger trains. At the time the accident occurred he was engaged in making up a train, and was in the act of coupling a sleeping car to a passenger coach, when the "bull noses" slipped past each other, allowing the cars to come together, and catching him between them, killed him instantly. The deceased was a single man, about thirty years of age, and had been in the employ of the Company for over three years. Coronor Clawson was notified and held an inquest on the body, the jury rendering a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Leg Broken.—Mr. E. Collins, a conductor on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, jumped from a train while passing the outer depot, Allegheny, Friday evening, fracturing his right leg at the ankle joint. He was removed to his residence in Manchester, where his injuries were properly attended to.

MARRIED.

PALMER—STOKES.—In Philadelphia, Pa., on Thursday evening, February 27th, at the residence of the bride's parents, by Rev. James G. Shinn, SAMUEL PALMER, Esq., of Pittsburgh, and MARY M. STOKES, daughter of Uriah M. Stokes, Esq., of Philadelphia.

DIED.

LYSLE.—On Saturday morning, February 29, 1868, at 2 o'clock, MAGGIE A., daughter of George and Margaret Lysle, in the 21st year of her age.

Funeral at 2 o'clock THIS (Monday,) AFTERNOON, March 2d, from the residence of her parents, No. 76 Washington street, Allegheny.

CRITCHLOW.—On Saturday morning, Feb. 29th, at 7 o'clock, SARAH S., wife of James Critchlow, in the 38th year of her age.

Funeral will take place from the residence of the deceased, Temperanceville, THIS (Monday,) AFTERNOON, March 2d, at 2 o'clock. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

BARKER.—At Fairfield, Conn., February 26, 1868, A. MARGARET, youngest child of James W., Jr., and Martha E. Barker, aged 9 months.

STANDARD TIME,
RUN INTO RHYME.

United, unequalled, securely they stand,
Nothing approaches them in the whole land;
Independent they tick in time's onward ways,
Telling our progression, in moments and days.
England and Switzerland's vain boasting and pride,
Dead, vanquished and buried, low down in the tide.

Surmounting all others our watches they stand,
The pride of our nation, the joy of our land;
A watch they keep while others are sleeping,
Tick, tick, they go on, in joy or in weeping;
Engineers on the railroad, river or field,
Say all the same thing, "For one moment I don't yield."

When railroads adopt them, knowing best that is made,
A man in the country need not be afraid;
The merchant, the banker, mechanic and all,
Call these best for Winter, Spring, Summer and Fall.
Hear now the conclusion the watch that we mean,
COme read the Acrostic, and all will be seen.

GRANULAR EFFERVESCING PREPARATIONS.
VICHY SALT.
This preparation contains, in a portable form, the constituents of the celebrated Mineral Water, and is highly recommended to travelers, as its properties are retained for any length of time unimpaired.
BI-CARBONATE OF POTASSA,
For the instant preparation of a most agreeable, sparkling Potassa Water, used as a corrective in complaints characterized by an acid or vitiated condition of the secretions.
CITRATE OF MAGNESIA.
The effervescent properties of this light and elegant preparation are retained in the highest degree, through its granular form, producing a continued sparkling effervescence, and preserving the flavor as a palatable Saline Draught.
SEIDLITZ POWDERS.
This preparation is strongly recommended for its simplicity of use, and as possessing all the qualities of the celebrated Seidlitz Spring in Germany. Thus a most desirable medicinal draught is produced, in an agreeable form, without the inconvenience of using two powders. It may be used with great advantage in cases of heartburn, nausea, acidity of stomach, or as a mild aperient or alterative, and is best taken in the morning.

THE PROGRESS OF IMPEACHMENT.

Articles of Impeachment, ten in number, having been prepared by its Select Committee, were submitted to the approval of the House on Saturday, and their full text appears under our telegraphic head. These articles substantially impeach the President upon the following charges:

1st. That he unlawfully and unconstitutionally, on the 21st of February, removed Secretary STANTON from the War Office. This article then proceeds, specifically stating the suspension of August 12th, his report of such suspension, with his reasons therefor, to the Senate, December 12th, the non-concurrence of the Senate in the sufficiency of such reasons, January 13th, the immediate re-instatement of the Secretary which followed, and his absolute removal with the appointment of THOMAS as his successor ad interim February 21st, the same being with the intent by the President to violate the Tenure of Office Act.

2nd. That, on the 21st February, he unlawfully and unconstitutionally appointed said THOMAS as Secretary ad interim.

3rd. Substantially repeats the charge in the second Article, with the added specification that he had appointed THOMAS, no vacancy existing at the time, and without the advice and consent of the Senate, which was then in session.

4th. That on the 21st of February he conspired with said THOMAS and other persons unknown, in violation of the Conspiracy Act of July 31st, 1861, with the intent to intimidate the Secretary of War, and by threats to hinder and prevent him from holding the office to which he was legally entitled.

5th. That on the 21st of February and at other times prior to the 28th of February, he conspired with said THOMAS and other persons to prevent and hinder the execution of the Tenure of Office Act, and specifying the attempt to prevent Secretary STANTON from holding his office according to law.

6th. That, on the 21st of February, he conspired with said THOMAS to seize, take and possess the property of the United States in the War Department, contrary to the provisions of the Conspiracy Act of 1861, and of the Tenure of Office Act of March, 1867.

7th. That he had, on the 21st of February and other days, conspired with said THOMAS to prevent and hinder the execution of the Tenure of Office Act, specifying the attempt to prevent Secretary STANTON from holding the office to which he was lawfully entitled.

8th. That, on the 21st of February, he conspired with said THOMAS to seize, take and possess the public property in the War Department, with intent to violate and disregard the Tenure of Office Act.

9th. That, on the 21st of February, he appointed THOMAS to be Secretary ad interim, there being then no vacancy, the Senate being in session and without its advice and consent, with the intent unlawfully to control the disbursements of moneys appropriated for expenditures in that Department.

10th. That on the 22nd of February, he attempted to corrupt the official integrity of Gen. EMORY, the commander of the Department of Washington, with the intent to instigate said EMORY, in his official acts as such Commander, to violate the appropriation law of March 2nd, 1867, by disregarding the section thereof which directs that all military orders or instructions shall be issued through the General of the Army only.

Each of these articles expressly includes the charge that in the offences therein alleged, the President committed and was guilty of a "high misdemeanor" in office; except that the 4th and 6th articles charging him with violations of the Conspiracy Act of 1861, expressly declare that his offences therein are "high crimes."

These articles arraign the President for the violation of three duly enacted laws of the United States, viz: the Conspiracy Act of July 31st, 1861, the Appropriation Act of March 2d, 1867, and the Tenure of Office Act, also of the latter date; for the violation, in each specification of the articles, of his oath of office, and as to the 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th and 10th articles, for violation of the Constitution.

It strikes us that these Articles amply cover the whole case for which the people have now to prosecute Mr. JOHNSON. But we express that opinion with all due deference to the judgment of those Republican representatives who are, apparently, not satisfied with the comprehensive care and wise discretion exhibited by Messrs. BOUTWELL, STEVENS, BINGHAM, WILSON, LOGAN, and others, the very competent gentlemen to whom the House entrusted the duty of drawing up these Articles. Their report was submitted to the House by Mr. BOUTWELL, who proceeded to explain and support the action of the Committee, very properly observing that any such action as the House might take thereon, by amendment or otherwise, would be acceptable to the Committee. In the debate which ensued, notice of additional articles to be offered was given by Mr. JENCKES, and it is likely that other amendments may be proposed to-day. The debate will be very general, members being limited to fifteen minutes each, and it is possible that a final vote upon their adoption with or without alteration may be reached to-day. We may remark that the temper of the House does not seem to favor any alteration in the report of the Committee.

The House will proceed, after the adoption of the Articles, to the nomination of managers to conduct the impeachment. For this duty the Republicans have selected Messrs. Stevens, Butler, Bingham, Boutwell, Wilson, Williams and Logan, and the selection will be approved by the House. The country has the highest confidence in these gentlemen, who are deservedly regarded as standing second to none in the 40th Congress in sterling ability or official influence.

The Senate is still engaged in the discussion of the rules for procedure in impeachment cases, but will take final action thereon in time to be prepared to receive the Articles from the House. It will probably be settled that the Chief Justice will simply replace the Vice President as President of the Senate, having, as such presiding officer, no especial judicial authority, although in point of fact, his opinions on questions of practice or points of law will have great weight with the Senate, which is itself, in such cases, both Court and jury.

NEW RAILWAY ROUTES.

A line of railway has not only been projected, but the grading on it nearly completed, extending from Northumberland, at the forks of the Susquehanna, to Lewiston, on the Pennsylvania Central. When it shall be finished it will offer three direct routes, of about equal value, between this city and New York, each by way of Northumberland.

1. By the Bloomsburg and Lackawanna, and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroads, to Easton, and thence by the New Jersey Central Railroad to New York.

2. By Bloomsburg and Lackawanna to Wilkesbarre; thence connecting with the Lehigh Valley Railroad, and thus reaching Easton, and thence by the New Jersey Central to New York.

3. By Bloomsburg and Lackawanna to Wilkesbarre, there connecting with the Lehigh and Susquehanna, thus reaching Easton, and thence by the Morris and Essex to New York.

Either of these is very nearly a direct line from this city to New York. Two of them run down the Lehigh Valley from the summit above Wilkesbarre—one on either bank—to Easton, where they separate, but not widely, from each other. All three of them follow the North Branch of the Susquehanna to or near the mouth of the Lackawanna.

A report prevailed last summer that this last mentioned link had passed under the control of the Pennsylvania Central. We are authoritatively informed that such is not the fact.

Upon the completion of this link between Northumberland and Lewiston, Pittsburgh will be in about as direct communication as is practicable with the anthracite coal fields of Luzerne county, than which there are none better.

Mr. JOHN B. JARVIS, an engineer of unusual experience, has within a few months made explorations for a route to connect Northumberland, by way of Lewisburg, with the Allegheny Valley railroad. He found an easy and direct line, the grades being much less than on the Pennsylvania Central, and the distance to New York considerably shorter. To make this connection will require the construction of about eighty miles of new road. What probabilities exist that this will be done speedily, or at all, we are not informed.

THE CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD.

Under the legislation of Maryland and the ordinances of the city of Baltimore, as these now stand, it appears that the property and revenue of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company, not only in its present incomplete state, but when it shall have been finished as proposed, are and will be subject to a mortgage to the city of Baltimore, of some ten years standing, as security for the loan of its credit, granted in 1856. This mortgage was for $1,000,000, and arrearages of interest to the amount of $819,600 are now due upon the same. But, by another section of the same ordinance which loaned the city's credit to that extent, it was also provided that, in case the Company should succeed in obtaining from other sources, the sums, in addition to the $1,000,000 so loaned, necessary for completing the road, the Mayor of Baltimore, upon proper proof of that ability, should be empowered to waive the city's first lien as above, in favor of the lenders of such additional sums. This offer remained open to the Company and to capitalists for nine years without acceptance, and was finally withdrawn by an ordinance repealing that section in 1865. A "Tax Payer," in an exhaustive communication to the Baltimore Sun of the 28th, calls attention to the impossibility that any additional means can be secured for the completion of the road, unless that offer of waiver be again renewed in favor of capitalists now proposing to supply the means. The writer argues the question with ability, in its various phases of legality and practical expediency, making it a plain case of public duty that Baltimore should cordially unite in removing all existing obstacles to the completion of this important communication.

BY PURCHASE, at Sheriff's sale, the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company has become possessed of the franchises and property of the Union Coal Company; not a cheap bargain, considering the price, and the liability to royalty for all the coal mined. However, this accession of facilities gives the Canal Company access to New York by rail, of course at all seasons of the year. It is now sending coal to New York, from what is known as the Baltimore mine, situated near Wilkesbarre, by the Lehigh Valley and the New Jersey Central Railroads.

R. K. Scott, a native of Pennsylvania, Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau for South Carolina, is the prominent candidate for the gubernatorial nomination of the Republicans of that State.

The Armless Artist.

Cesar Ducornet was born in Lille, France, January 10, 1806. Born as he was, without arms, what was there for him to do, even in this busy world? Each foot had but four toes, but he early learned to use these to advantage. When very young he could with ease throw a ball, cut with a knife, and draw lines on the floor with chalk, and could even cut figures on paper with his mother's scissors. He early became a good penman. From this he passed to drawing and naturally enough to painting, the wide space between his great toe and the next enabling him to grasp his brushes firmly. At the age of thirteen his progress astonished Watteau, professor at the school of design, in Lille, who received him as a pupil. Only three years later, he took the first prize for a drawing of the human figure from nature. After this he pursued his studies in Paris. He was of a lively temperament, and when in conversation he became animated, he was in the habit of gesticulating with his legs, as other persons do with their arms. Some one has described a visit to his painting room, which is interesting:

"Across the whole extent of the canvass ran, with incredible agility, like a fly upon the wall, the stunted trunk of a man, surmounted by a noble head, with expansive brow and eye of fire; and wherever the apparition passed along the canvass, he left the traces of color behind him. On approaching a few paces nearer, we were aware of a lofty but slender scaffolding in front of the canvass, up and down and across the steps and stages of which climbed, and crouched, and twisted—it is impossible to describe how—the shapeless being we had come to see. We saw then that he was deprived of arms; that he had no thighs; that his short legs were closely united to his body; and that each of his feet wanted a toe. By one of his feet he held a palette—by the other a pencil; in his mouth also he carried a large brush and a second pencil. And in all this harness he moved, and rolled, and writhed, and painted, in a manner more than marvelous! a voice musical; grave and sonorous, saluting us by name, invited us to be seated. Then the apparition glided down the whole length of the scaffold to the ground, advanced, or rather rolled toward us, and with a bound established himself on the sofa at our side. We watched him with interest and had a long conversation with him. He told us he had been born without arms, and had been a painter ten years, and was now making money by his art. He used his feet with almost as much ease as people do their hands, holding his palette in his left one, and his brush in the right, as though all his toes were fingers, changing them with the most perfect facility, and even thrusting his foot into his pocket, as another man would his hand. He wrote his name for us with great rapidity, and well, and told us he shaved himself.

—The Philadelphia Ledger says: Since the English postal treaty has gone into effect, there has been considerable complaint that newspapers and perodicals posted in England do not come to hand. We are advised of quite a number of failures, and if the experience of one of our importing houses may be taken as a guide, the failures amount to fifteen per cent. Some of these doubtless arise from the want of acquaintance with the rates under the new treaty. Under its provisions each country establishes its own rates for newspapers, and the payment of that rate carries the paper to its destination without further charge. On our side the postage on a newspaper to be sent to Great Britain has been fixed at two cents, and this should take it to its destination free of any British postage. What rate the British Post-office has established on newspapers coming this way has not been officially published by our Post-office Department that we have seen, and our city Postmaster has no official advices on the subject. This rate, however, seems to be four cents under the new treaty for papers posted in Great Britain for the United States, as we notice that each of the London journals received at this office bears a two-penny stamp. This is twice the former charge, and many persons in Great Britain may be unacquainted with it. If penny stamps are put on as formerly, the papers are not sent out to his country at all. The four-cent rate pays to destination in this country.

—The "Transfusion" Process, it is reported, has been revived in Vienna, by a physician who uses it with success in cholera cases. The blood of healthy young persons is infused into the veins of the patients to the extent of about twenty ounces, and the effect, it is said, often is instantaneous relief.

RAILWAYS.

—The receipts of the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago railway for the month of January are reported at $9,219.68.

—The object of the proposed railroad from Bellefontaine to Coshocton, Ohio, is said to be to reach the Coshocton coal fields.

—Ties are being delivered along the track of the Kalamazoo and Allegan road, and preparations are making for the new depot and buildings of that Company in Kalamazoo.

—Four locomotives, exported from England, will soon be at work in Abyssinia upon the railway formed in connection with the English expeditionary force now in that country.

—The Ohio and Mississippi Railroad Company threaten to remove their shops from Vincennes, Ind., on account of the taxes. Washington, Daviess county, wants them to come there.

—The negotiations for the purchase of the properties of the Northern New Jersey railroad by the Hudson River West Shore Railroad Company have been completed, and the last named Company on the 17th inst., paid $100,000 to insure the bargain.

—In England, the juries are particularly opposed to railways. A case is lately reported in which an English jury has awarded $5,500 damages to a gentleman whose nerves were shocked, but who received no bodily wound by a railway accident.

—All the passenger cars on the Reading railroad are supplied with a new patent safety stove, which in case of accident cannot set fire to the cars. The new style of stove is so constructed and secured that it may be bent double without allowing the fire to escape.

—The Omaha Republican says the number of pounds of western bound freight transported over the Chicago and Northwestern railway and received in that city during the month ending Jan. 31, was 31,807,970, or an average of 1,233,383 pounds per day: the freight on which amounted to $131,938.13.

—In accordance with arrangements by which the past claims of the Memphis, Clarksville and Louisville road employes are to be fully met, trains commenced running on the 18th inst. It is understood that the Louisville and Nashville Company has leased the road and will control it in future.

—Amasa Stone, Esq., President of the Cleveland, Painesville and Astabula road, and of the Cleveland and Toledo Company, has resigned. The vacation of his position so soon after the consolidation of these two roads, of which so much was expected, excites a good deal of remark. The new broad-gauge route is hinted as a reason.

GENERAL NEWS.

—The Green Bay (Wis.) Advocate says that within a radius of fifteen miles of that city there are facilities for cutting 200,000,000 shingles in a year.

—The Berkshire Woolen company's establishment, at Great Barrington, Mass., is running on full time, employing 250 hands, and cannot fill its orders.

—An essay in an English magazine, on "Wall Street and American Finance," estimates the annual amount of money transactions in Wall street at between $15,000,000,000 and $16,000,000,000.

—The Ludlow (Vt.) Woolen Mills will commence running on eleven hours time on the 1st of March. During the past few months they have been running on the "eight hour system."

—The new machinery for the paper mill at Golden City, Colorado, has been received. The steam dryers, and other machinery, have been put in place, and the mill will be in running order soon.

—We learn from the Green Bay (Wis.) Advocate that the fish trade of that place is becoming an important winter item. The total amount of shipments from Oct. 1 to Feb. 10 were: fresh fish, 494,760 pounds; salt fish, 856 half barrels.

—With reference to the proposed sale of American iron clads, a Paris correspondent of the London Morning Post says: "It is reported that Russia is in treaty with the Government of the United States for another purchase of vessels of war, and a Russian agent is said to be now in New York, to ascertain what facilities there may be for collecting in America a fleet of transports."

—The New Albany (Ind.) Ledger says that the ship carpenters and boat builders of that city are leaving in large numbers. About twenty of them have constructed a flatboat, thirty feet long by twelve feet wide, and will start down the river in search of work. They have no idea where they will stop, or whether work can be obtained at points below, but the venture has been determined upon.

—The increase of population in the British colonies in Australia is very striking. Victoria contained in 1836, 177 persons; in 1841, 11,738; in 1866, 633,998. New South Wales numbered, in 1803, but 7,997 persons; in 1866, 420,000. The population of South Australia increased from 30,000 in 1861 to 95,719 in 1866. The continuance of such an increase of population would soon make Australia one of the prominent countries of the globe.

—"The Wealth of Every Man" was recently discoursed upon by a lecturer at the University of Cambridge, England. He defined this wealth to be the possession and use of our natural faculties, and very powerfully pictured the poverty that followed our being deprived of them or their being impaired in the operation. He made a point of our want of appreciation of the blessings of this wealth until we are deprived of it, when we measure its value by our sense of the loss we have sustained. The lecture was aptly illustrated by quoting verses written by Milton—written after his blindness.

THE MISERABLES

Of this bright and cheerful world ARE THE DYSPEPTICS. Without a good digestion there can neither be bodily comfort nor mental enjoyment. Between the stomach and the brain there is a close and wonderful alliance. If the one is disordered the other is gloomy, dejected, incapable of effort, and indifferent to all that makes life agreeable to the healthy.

Is this a condition that any rational human being is willing to endure, when the means of certain, immediate and permanent relief can be obtained everywhere?

The Dyspeptic has his fate in his own hands. If he chooses to banish forever the disorder that racks his body and disturbs the mind with nameless horrors, he has only to step to the nearest drug store and procure a supply of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

No phase of Dyspepsia has ever yet resisted the alterative, tonic and anti-bilious operation of this potent vegetable specific. It literally regenerates the lethargic stomach; rouses into healthy action the dormant liver; puts to flight the dismal fancies that beset the mind; gently relieves and regulates the bowels; strengthens the enfeebled nerves; restores the appetite and makes, as it were, a new creature of the desponding and debilitated invalid.

Ladies who suffer from indigestion have only to take a small dose of this pure vegetable corrective, once or twice a day, to secure entire exemption from the pains and penalties of a weak stomach and that perfect functional regularity, which but few of the sex uninterruptedly enjoy.

Chronic Diseases

The functions of the human body give way, usually one at a time. A disordered liver, or a slight irritation of the bronchial tubes, an obstruction in the skin or of the renal organs, are sure to be followed by pains and aches in various parts, according to the extent of the organic or functional injury. A man afflicted with dyspepsia will soon find more than the stomach at fault. The food that he swallows fails to renew the natural wear and waste, the worn out matter is deposited in some nook or cranney, where it causes irritation or pain, when it ought to be thrown off and carried out of the system. Hundreds and thousands of just such sufferers have been relieved and restored to health and vigor by a few bottles of DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER, which not only imparts tone to the stomach and digestive organs, but likewise enriches the blood with the elementary principles needful to the restoration of the vital energy of the system. Be careful when you ask for it to get DR. KEYSER'S, for that is the kind, and the only kind, that has cured the numberless cases of disordered and broken constitutions. It was that which cured Mr. Boyd. It was that which cured John Titzell. It was that which cured Margaret McFarland. It was Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher which cured all the old chronic cases which we have published from time to time in these columns. Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher has cured more cases of chronic diseases than any medicine of recent origin. Sold by the gross, dozen, or single bottle, at the Doctor's great medicine store, No. 140 WOOD STREET.

1786. PROSPECTUS. 1868.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

The largest daily paper in the State of Pennsylvania, enters the 82nd year of its existence with increased facilities for disseminating the current news of the day, and for rendering good political service in the important Presidential Canvass of 1868. The forthcoming session of Congress promises to prove one of the most important held since the formation of the Government, and the proceedings will be anxiously watched by the intelligent masses. In view of the deep interest centered in the proceedings, the proprietors of the GAZETTE have made arrangements for daily dispatches and letters during the session, from a highly intelligent correspondent, who enjoys the confidence and friendship of the leading members of the Senate and House, the heads of the various Departments, and the leading politicians who frequent Washington, so that readers can depend on receiving the first, fullest and most reliable intelligence from the seat of Government.

The proceedings of the State Legislature, at its forthcoming session, will also prove interesting, inasmuch as many questions of importance will come up for legislation. The GAZETTE will keep at the State Capital, during the entire session, an intelligent and faithful correspondent, who will promptly report the proceedings by mail and telegraph.

It is the only political journal of Pittsburgh which faithfully reflects and steadily advocates the principles held by the Union Republican Party, and interpreted by a loyal Congress.

It gives as much reading matter as any paper sold at twelve dollars per annum, while its price is but eight, being the cheapest as well as the largest newspaper in the Commonwealth.

With the enlargement, every department has been strengthened. The high character of its editorial columns will be maintained, and all questions of public importance will be fearlessly discussed.

The news department will be kept up to the requirements of the day, and in condensed items will faithfully mirror all the transactions worthy of note of the City, State, Country and world at large, and maintain for the GAZETTE the reputation of a live, enterprising and first class family and commercial newspaper.

Ample space has been reserved for market reports, which can at all times be relied upon as correct, as the current quotations for manufactures, farm products, cattle, &c., &c., are daily gathered from actual sales, by faithful and efficient reporters.

The river news is collected with care, and will prove a very interesting feature of the GAZETTE.

The financial news department has been placed in charge of an able and experienced banker, who will render it quite an attractive and useful especially to bankers, brokers and business men generally.

The religious department will receive the attention due its importance, and will be so conducted as to be pleasing and readable to members of all religious denominations.

The agricultural, art, science, literary, personal and other departments of the paper will be conducted in a manner which will prove satisfactory to the reader.

TERMS OF THE DAILY GAZETTE.

Three Months	$2.00.
Six Months	4.00.
One Year	8.00.

Delivered in Pittsburgh, Allegheny and all the adjacent Boroughs for 15 cents per week, payable to Carriers.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

The WEEKLY GAZETTE has been enlarged to the same size as the Daily, and is now the largest, cheapest and best weekly family newspaper in the State. It should be in the house of every farmer, mechanic and business man. It gives each week forty solid columns of current news by telegraph and mail, the leading editorials of the daily, and a choice selection of literary and scientific items, together with everything important pertaining to the world of politics. Its agricultural columns will be edited in such a manner as to find favor with the farmer and gardener. The market reports of the WEEKLY GAZETTE are by common consent acknowledged to be the standard authority for both buyers and sellers, and in commercial circles in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and Western Virginia are without equal. The files of the GAZETTE are used exclusively by the Civil Courts of Allegheny county, as reference in important issues, to determine the ruling prices in the markets at the time of the business transaction in dispute.

Our Agents will favor us by getting up their clubs at once, and not allowing their present ones to expire, as we are anxious that none of our readers should be deprived of a week's news. Additions to clubs can be made at any time, at yearly rates. Postmasters and Merchants are requested to act as Agents.

TERMS FOR THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

Single Subscriber	$1.50.
Clubs of Five	1.25.
Clubs of Ten	1.15.

—and one to the getter up the club.

J. B. HARRIS'
SAFETY FIRE JACKET,
Car Heater and Moderator,
For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of stoves and fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature as may be desired without the possibility of fire to the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.
Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steam boats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes or conductors are made dangerous by being overheated, and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

A GREAT FAMILY CONVENIENCE.
A new and novel arrangement for having HOT WATER BOILERS
attached to the back end of common cook stoves, so that the waste blaze which goes up the stovepipe heats all the water needed in an ordinary sized family, by passing the blaze directly through the Boiler, which sits over the pipe hole of the stove. This new arrangement can be put on any No. 7, 8 or 9 common Cooking Stove, of any manufacture. Any person having a TRIUMPH, VICTORY, BLACK OAK BEAUTY or UNION STOVE, or almost any other Cook Stove made in the Union, can have Boilers attached to their Stoves, including the Attachment, the Boiler and Lids, and Bibb Cock, for the moderate cost of SEVEN DOLLARS, by applying to CHANGE.

BY DORA GREENWELL.

They spake of thee to me: they said,
"This is thy friend"; and I, with set
Mechanic force, as one that met
A challenge, turned; in measured speech
I spake of thee: I seemed to reach
Some distant region whence to bring
My words, that in a praiseful ring
Enshrined thy name. My words were true,
Yet, while I spake, a cruel sense
Of falsehood on my spirit grew;
Of poverty and vain pretence;
A sound of loosened earth fell through
My words, and then they ceased, I knew
I buried thee beneath my praise;
I hid thee deep, and o'er thee drew
The moulds, while, like a tear that falls
Among the grasses rank and high
That grow within the graveyard walls,
And glitters when the dews are dry,
Fell on my soul the thought of days,
When at thy name a sudden flower
Within my heart would bloom and spread,
And die not till its odor shed,—
Made sweet the moment, sweet the hour
I spoke of thee. O! those were days,
Methinks, for loving, not for praise.
I could not praise thee then; in part
I saw not, loved not. What to me
Were gifts that others prized! A free,
Kind gift, I took thee to my heart,
This heart that did not reasons seek,
Nor reasons need, for loving thee.
So now this praising thin and weak
Seems but a shroud to wrap thee in
A garment never worn in life,
Drawn close unto thy feet and chin.
So endeth love, so ended strife.—
Vex not this ghost, O, let it pass,
Hold not before these lips the glass;
The life, the breath, the soul is fled,
Now draw the curtain round the dead,
And bring no music here. What care
The dead for praising? Unto prayer
Let silence grow; shut out the air
From this still chamber; shut the light
From these still brows so calm and white.

EPHEMERIES.

—Nashville has a limited supply of coal.

—Colt's revolvers have been placed in the hands of the Egyptian cavalry.

—General Grant has subscribed $10,000 to a Methodist church in Washington.

—Alexander H. Stephens has no opinion to offer on the difficulties at Washington.

—The Committee on Ways and Means has concluded that whisky should remain taxed two dollars per gallon.

—The Chicago Insurance Companies have resolved to increase their rates from eighteen to twenty-one per cent.

—It is said that newsboys and bootblacks are kidnapped from New York city and sold to frontiersmen out West.

—Congressman Morrissey is to make a hit by giving a sparring exhibition for the benefit of the poor in New York city.

—Many wells and springs have gone dry in New York, and the "G. A's" of that section attribute the fact to volcanic action.

—Eugene Haywood, a youth of two-and-twenty, owns fifty thousand acres of land in Illinois, and twelve thousand in Nebraska.

—During 1867 the United States received an army of immigrants from foreign countries of nearly one quarter million persons.

—James Smallie, got on a spree in New York city, and laid down before a bar room grate to spend the night. His clothing took fire and he was burned to death.

—A naked, new born infant, was found on the railroad track near Altoona. It is presumed that the babe was given birth on a passing train, and thrown out the car window. Of course, it was dead.

—A negligent town clerk in East Greenwich, Rhode Island, failed to return to the assessors a list of registered voters as required by law, and thus disfranchised for the year one hundred and fifty voters.

—George H. Pendleton's chances for the Democratic Presidential nomination daily grow beautifully less. He was well backed, but the shrewd New York politicians, who managed to get the Convention to that city, proved too many for the greenbackers of the west.

—Mrs. Rhoda Sherman of Gaston, Conn., is an aged lady of ninety five summers. She reads without glasses, and two years ago wove a rag carpet, and is now getting out material for another. She has had 145 descendants, who represent her in half the States of the Union.

—Hon. Reverdy Johnson has given his opinion affirmatively on the following question submitted: "Have the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore the right to retire the first mortgage held by them upon the franchises and property of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company, to fund the accrued and accruing interest up to January, 1871, and take the position of second mortgagee."

—Mrs. Margaret Hayes, of Brownsville, Texas, met her death in a singular manner, the other day. She had crossed the river on her way to Matamoros, and was killed by a bullet from the Brownsville side, while riding in a cab. The bullet was fired by one of the soldiers of a guard just relieved, who were directed to discharge their pieces into the river. The officers who investigated the occurrence, express the opinion that the fatal ball had ricochetted upon the surface of the water.

—Inasmuch as the Democratic journals are counting the votes of the Conservative Senators, as certain to be cast against impeachment, it might be well to urge that the trial is not a political one, and that members must act as sworn jurors. Political views must sink after the following rigid oath is taken "I solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be,) that in all things pertaining to the trial of impeachment of ——, now pending, I will do impartial justice according to the Constitution and laws, so help me God."

—A largely attended convention of the distillers of the West and Northwest was in session at Cincinnati last week. A set of resolutions was passed calling the attention of Congress to the fact that their business was languishing for want of proper protection, as the prices were depressed by the immense quantities of whisky thrown on the market by illicit distillers. They advised a reduction of tax as the best method for putting a stop to the wholesale frauds carried on, and recommended imprisonment, instead of fine, as the punishment of violators of the revenue laws.

—W. S. Hutchings, of St. Louis, is now engaged in constructing a wonderful flying machine. It measures 28 feet in height with an expansion of 22 feet, full weight of the entire machine 285 pounds, when ready for aerial navigation, capable of carrying with ease in the air 150 pounds. The principle is entirely new, and the invention claims the compression of hot and cold air in running a caloric engine which is attached to the back. The body is enclosed in a complete mail armour made of vulcanized Indian rubber and brass with glass in front which protects the body and face from the wind. Attached to the engine and connected by means of a tube passing over the shoulder, is a large cylinder, containing the compressed air, which is worked with each hand. By this means the navigator can go up or down with ease and regulates the engine at his own leisure. Attached to the feet, head and cylinder, are doubled, inflated wings, some four feet in length; and by means of cords and India rubber valves attached to the flywheels of the engine, are two large inflated wings, on the compressed air principle, eighteen feet in length, and which turn with lightning speed in a circular revolution, bearing up the entire machine. Immediately above the engine is attached by means of cords a large double inflated parachute, measuring 66 feet in circumference with a tube connecting from the centre with the caloric engine. This is the protection in making an ascension without danger to the aeronaut, in case of accident or breaking of the machine. The first trial will take place near St. Louis, by the wonderful feat of jumping out of a balloon at the height of two thousand feet from the earth; and as the inventor proposes to accomplish this himself he has great confidence in his own invention. If it is a success aerial navigation is certainly the most useful invention of modern times, outrivaling the telegraph or steam navigation.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

THE COURTS.

Quarter Sessions—Full Bench.

The following sentences were pronounced on Saturday:

Michael Scahill and John Hughes were first called up. The motion for a new trial in the case of Hughes, who had been convicted with Scahill of the larceny of a box of draughtsman's tools from the establishment of W. W. Wallace, was first disposed of. Judge Stowe refused to grant the motion, and remarked that in connection with the testimony elicited in another case, he had no doubt the defendant was guilty of a much higher offense than that of which he had been convicted. The jury, however, had entertained a doubt and had given him the benefit of it. Hughes was then sentenced to undergo three years imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary.

Michael Scahill was next called up for sentence. Judge Sterrett remarked that he had no doubt that both he and Hughes were equally guilty in the burning of Mr. Wallace's establishment, as well as of the larceny of the tools. The sentence in the larceny case, however, would be suspended, and the future action of the court would depend on the future conduct of the defendant. Scahill was then sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of six years in the Western Penitentiary.

Peter Keil, convicted of the seduction of Louisa Klein, under promise of marriage, was sentenced to pay a fine of five hundred dollars, and to undergo an imprisonment of fifteen months in the Western Penitentiary.

Daniel O'Neill, of the Pittsburgh Dispatch, who plead nolle contendere to a charge of libel preferred by James B. O'Neill, was next called up for sentence. Judge Sterrett in addressing the defendant, said the majority of the Court considered this case merely supplemental to a series of cases similar in character to those which had been disposed of. As the fines imposed in those cases were light, and in one instance remitted by the Governor, it was thought but proper to impose a correspondingly light fine in the present instance. Judge Stowe stated that it might be proper for him to express his position. He said the charge was malicious libel, and as the plea of the defendant was a virtual admission of the charge, he was of the opinion that a heavier fine should be imposed. His opinion was that all the proceedings of Court were privileged, but in this case, where malicious publication was charged, the plea of nolle contendere was an admission that the publication was made through malice, and not for the purpose of giving the proceedings of the Court, and consequently demanded the enforcement of a severer penalty.

The defendant was sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars and costs.

Criminal Court.

The March term of the Criminal Court will commence this morning at ten o'clock. The calender of cases is about as large as usual.

The following is a summary of the offences for which prisoners are now awaiting trial in jail: Larceny, twenty-nine; riot and malicious mischief, four; riot, one; assault and battery and rape, one; assault and battery, four; false pretense, five; misdemeanor, two; surety of the peace, five; perjury, one; fraud, two; larceny by bailee, one; felonious assault and battery, six; keeping bawdy house, three; aggravated assault and battery, one; desertion, two; fornication and bastardy, one. malicious mischief, two; forgery, two; housebreaking and larceny, seven; counterfeiting, one; illegal liquor selling, one; assault, one; receiving stolen goods, one.

Report of the Superintendent of the Fire Alarm Telegraph.

The following is the report of Mr. S. T. Paisley, Superintendent of the Fire Alarm Telegragh, for the month of February, showing the number of fires and alarms, estimated loss of property, and amount of insurance, together with the number of blows struck on the central bell:

Number of fires, 6; loss of property, $120,760; insurance, $66,300; number of blows on the central bell, 112 in striking alarms and 232 in striking the hour; total 344. The principal fire during the month was that of the book establishment of A. H. English & Co., which occurred on Sunday morning, February 9th, at which there was $118,000 worth of property destroyed. There were also thirty-three police messages sent and received.

Held for a Hearing.—Nicholas Knorr made information before Mayor Drum on Saturday charging Christ. Brining with assault and battery. Knorr alleges that the defendent, who is a butcher, and keeps a meat shop on Chestnut street, Allegheny, sent for him, and when he entered the shop Brining stated that he had been informed that the complainant had been circulating stories injurious to his character, and demanded whether the information was correct. Before Knorr had time to reply, as he alleges, Brining struck him a violent blow on the nose with the handle of a large butcher knife, shattering the bone. Several other blows were administered in rapid succession, and serious injuries were inflicted. Brining was arrested and held for a hearing.

Confiscated.—On Friday last seventy-eight pounds of butter were confiscated by the Superintendent of Markets, and appropriated to the use of the poor. The cause of the confiscation was light weight.

RELIGIOUS.

Missionary Anniversary.

The annual Missionary demonstration at Liberty street M. E. Church took place yesterday. Notwithstanding the slippery condition of the streets and misty-sleety rain which fell throughout the day, the attendance was quite good at each sermon. The bad weather, however, and ill health of several liberal contributors, and other causes, had the effect of diminishing the amount expected, and which doubtless would have been secured, had it not have been for these untoward circumstances.

At the morning hour the Rev. L. F. Morgan, D. D., pastor of Christ M. E. Church, delivered a very able sermon on "The aggressive character of the Gospel," after which the Missionary Committee waited upon the congregation and received contributions to the amount of one hundred and fifty dollars. Rev. Dr. Pershing was present and closed with prayer. The afternoon was devoted to the anniversary exercises of the Sunday School, the Superintendent, Mr. Edward Heazelton, presiding. Exercises opened with singing and prayer by Rev. S. Y. Kennedy, of Temperanceville. Addresses were then delivered by Rev. S. M. Hickman and J. W. F. White, Esq., Attorney at Law, of this city. These addresses, though widely different in their style, were both appropriate for the occasion, and well received. At the close of the addresses the Superintendent called for reports from the respective classes, amounting in the aggregate to six hundred and fifty dollars. The classes constituted the following persons Life Members of the Missionary Society by the payment of twenty dollars each: John Brice, Mollie Mitchell, Mary E. Cunningham, Maggie Singer, Robt. Heimngray, Lizzie Bunton, Joseph Johns, Jr., Chas. Shoemaker, James Bunton, Annie Glosser, Sadie Cunningham, Sue Clarke, W. S. Arnold, Matilda Grebe, Lizzie Carse, Samuel Clifford Sampson, L. M. Lee, T. A. Miller, M. B. Lee, Eli Hobbs, J. M. Arnold, Mattie Long, Florence Kramer Heazelton, Maggie E. Locke, Josie H. G. M'Clurg, Minnie Shallenberger Jackson, Robert Bagaley, W. S. Flinn, Jas. S. Arnold, Emma Coffin.

Voluntary propositions for membership of the Parent Missionary Society of the M. E. Church then followed, leading with the pastor, Rev. W. H. Locke, who was constituted a Life Director by the payment of one hundred and fifty dollars, after which the following persons were made Life Members: Florence Kramer Heazleton, Mary Grier, Edward Heazleton Kramer, Fannie Owston, Sallie Stoneroad, Rev. S. M. Hickman. The singing, under the lead of Mr. W. B. Krebs, at the Sunday School anniversary, added much to the interest of the occasion.

The pulpit was filled at the evening hour by Rev. S. H. Nesbit, D. D., editor of the Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, who delivered an eloquent sermon on the "Spread of the Kingdom of Christ." A good basket collection was lifted. In view of the causes named, disagreeable weather, absence of some liberal contributors, &c., an effort will be made to increase the sum above what has already been secured, say between eleven and twelve hundred dollars, to make the amount worthy of this time-honored liberal-giving church. Praise is awarded, and very justly, too, to the Pastor, Rev. W. H. Lock, A. M., who had the general superintendence of the exercises throughout the day and evening, for his indefatigable efforts to promote the cause.

A Mysterious Robbery.

Robberies of late have become so frequent that they have ceased to be a matter of interest, unless there is something special connected with them, partaking either of the "horrible" or "mysterious." Under the latter term we might, perhaps, class the following, which occurred in Allegheny City, between nine o'clock on Saturday night, and eight o'clock Sunday morning. Sunday morning, about the hour last mentioned, Chief Bowden and Captain Hunter, of the Allegheny police, were informed that the meat shop of Daniel Fry was opened, and that papers were scattered all over the floor. The shop is located on Beaver street, on the first floor of the building occupied by Fry and his family as a dwelling. The officers proceeded to the shop and found the door and window open, but no marks of violence about either of them further than the breaking of the fastening of one of the window shutters, which would indicate that it had been forced open from the inside. On the floor of the shop were three large drawers, which they afterwards ascertained had been carried from the bed chamber occupied by Mr. Fry and his wife, immediately over the shop, and to reach which it was necessary to pass up a very narrow pair of stairs, and what was supposed to have been the contents of the drawers, consisting of innumerable papers and articles of clothing, were scattered in grand profusion all about the shop. The door leading from the shop to the stairway was locked and when the officers tried it, Mr. Fry, who was on the other side of it, called to them to "bust her in." After a short search the key was found and the door unlocked. Mr. Fry, without evincing any excitement or surprise, proceeded to show the officers how the burglars had effected an entrance, which he said was by prying the window shutter open from the outside. The officers not having their glasses with them, however, failed to "see it." He stated that he had been robbed of two hundred and seventy-five dollars in government money, which he said was taken from his wife's bosom, three gold dollars and twenty half dollars in silver, a silver watch and his wife's golden locket and chain, which were taken from the bureau drawers. It is not alleged by Mr. Fry that the burglars used chloroform or anything of that nature, yet it appears that he and his wife slept so soundly that the persons (there were evidently two of them, as one person could not carry either of the drawers down the narrow stairs) committing the robbery made three trips up and down the stairs into their bed chamber, and even took the two hundred and seventy-five dollars in greenbacks from Mrs. F.'s bosom, where it had been placed by her on retiring for safe-keeping. The fact of the thieves knowing where the two hundred and seventy-five dollars had been deposited is certainly a mystery, as it is not at all probable they discovered it by chance. No arrests have been made, nor is it likely there will be, as we think the mystery involving it would puzzle the "oldest" detective.

A Fraud.

A. S. Robinson, a resident of the Third ward, it seems has been practicing and attempting to practice impositions on our citizens for a long time, without being caught at his tricks, but like all other evil doers it was only a question of time with him, and he has come to grief at last. His favorite mode of procedure was to assume wealth and thereby palm off checks on the unsuspecting upon banks in which he never had a dollar. The facts of his last transaction in that line are as follows: On the 22d of February Frederick Schuckman, a farmer, residing in Peebles township, came to the city with a load of potatoes, which, in consequence of the business houses being generally closed, he was unable to dispose of. He was lamenting the fact when Robinson, hearing him, proposed to purchase the potatoes, but stated that he could not give him the money as it was all in the bank; he would, however, give him a check for the amount on the Second National Bank. The potatoes were measured and delivered and a check for the amount, $26,50, given for them. The Bank being closed the check was was not presented until the following Monday, when the holder (Mr. Schuckman) was informed that there was no money in the bank to Robinson's credit, nor never had been. After vainly endeavoring to obtain the money from Robinson, he made information on Saturday before Alderman McMasters, charging him with obtaining goods under false pretenses and fraud. Robinson was arrested, and after a hearing was, in default of the required bail, committed to jail to answer at Court.

Cross Suits.—The difficulty between Wm. Opp and George Applegate, which took place on Christmas day, at a saloon in Birmingham, it appears is not yet settled. Yesterday Opp made information before Alderman McMasters against Applegate and J. S. Johnson for surety of the peace, and Applegate in return made information before the same magistrate against Opp for the same. Applegate was arrested and committed to jail in default of bail, and a warrant was issued for the others.

The Coal Frauds.—A final hearing in the coal fraud case was had on Saturday. Several witnesses were examined, after which Lanigan, Smith and Hoffman were held to bail in the sum of one thousand dollars each, for their appearance at Court. It appears from the facts in the case that Wm. Hageman and Conrad Schad were in no way connected with the fraud. They were consequently discharged.

Burglary.—The store of Blaney & Mooney, No. 48 Washington street, was broken into Saturday night and a double barreled gun stolen, and No. 41, occupied by Charles Haffey as a grocery store, was also entered by burglars, who broke open the money drawer and abstracted several dollars in small change which had been left in it. The burglars left no clue likely to lead to their detection.

Pittsburgh, February 28, 1868.—In justice to Mr. Francis Helbling, I would state that the meat seized by me to-day, the 29th inst., was not black with decay as erroneously stated by the evening press, but simply in my opinion too lean and poor to be fit for public consumption.

WILLIAM HOSACK,
Meat Inspector.

Newspaper Change.—The interest of J. I. Hartman, Esq., in the Lancaster Examiner and Herald, has been purchased by J. A. Hiestand, Esq., one of the editors of that journal. Mr. Hartman says that until otherwise announced the business of the establishment will be conducted as heretofore.

Canst thou not minister to a mind diseased,
And with some sweet, oblivious antidote,
Cleanse the foul bosom of the perilous stuff
That weighs upon the heart?

Certainly: Plantation Bitters will do it when nothing else will. Melancholy, Depression, Hypochondria, Insanity, all spring, more or less, from a diseased stomach, and this, Plantation Bitters is a sure cure for. There is no mistake about it; Dyspepsia, Headache, Dullness, Ague, and Low Spirits must yield to the health giving and genial influence of the Plantation Bitters. If you are in doubt, make one trial and be convinced. Thus say those who know.

Gold was firmer to-day, but closed weak; the opening price was 141⅛, advanced to 141⅝, and closed at 141⅝. Transactions are light, buyers holding back on account of the payment of 10-40 interest on Monday, and the more favorable constructions put on the impeachment question. No doubt the bulls and bears alike will avail themselves of that for the next fort-night as a pretext to put up the credit of the Government or down, just as it suits their purse best.

Government securities were very dull to-day and lower; considerable amounts are thrown on the market by monied institutions to be bought back at a lower rate. The bulk of the bonds, however, is held by parties strong enough to put up the price if they choose. The gambling in Government securities has lately been carried on to an enormous extent, it being considered more respectable than gold speculation, but in reality is more injurious to the credit of the Government than the latter in times like the present.

Stocks are firmer and higher, but transactions are light; the scarcity of money will keep away from Broad street a large number of the regular gamblers. There is less demand for local Railroad or other securities.

Money, though active, is not very tight, but is likely to be so during the beginning of next week.

Closing New York quotations, received by Ph. R. Mertz, are as follows:

Gold, 141⅝; 1881's, 110⅛; 5-20s, 1862, 106⅞; 1864, 107⅝; 1865, 105½; Consols, 106⅞; 10-40s, 104; 7-30s, 106⅛.

—The Farmers' and Citizens' Bank of East Brooklyn, and the suspended Croton Bank, have each made a dividend to their depositors of 50 per cent. We have a report from Chicago that the First National Bank of Keokuk had failed and that the First National Bank of Bethel, Conn., was closed on Monday after examination by a Government examiner, who still holds its effects in charge. The note holders of these institutions are secure enough but so far as there has been any progress towards settlement of the broken banks all the other creditors fare badly enough. The natural effect of this will be to make depositors more cautious where they make their deposits. The will feel compelled to look a little to the character of the officers of the bank.

—The Secretary of the Treasury, in reply to a resolution of the House of Representatives, states that the amount of ten-forty bonds sold by him in the three months and twenty days embraced in the report—namely, from October 1st, 1867, to January 20, 1868, inclusive—was $8,141,000. The premium received ranged from ¼ to 2⅛, and aggregated on the sales in question $106,296. All such transactions as these should be conducted publicly, and the sales and purchases of securities during each month should be minutely specified in the periodical statements of the public debt.

—The increased employment for money in regular trade circles, by reason of the activity in the cotton market, and the improvement in the demand for dry goods and general merchandise, has caused the banks of New York especially to make up their stock exchange loans at 6 per cent. and in some cases 7 per cent., where they previously stood at 4@5 per cent., and outside money lenders are getting 4@5 in place of 4@6 per cent. on the public funds and other favorite collaterals. These changes of rates have not yet become general, but the signs are that money is commanding full 1 per cent. more than last week.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, February 29, 1868.

CRUDE—The market during the early part of the week was firm and considerably excited, but since then there has been quite a reaction, and prices are lower. Spot oil, which then sold at 8c has declined to 7¼ to 7⅜c, though there are but very few sellers below 7⅜c. April has declined to 8c; May at 8¼ to 8½c; June to 8¾c, and July to 9c. We can report a sale of 3,000 barrels for all the year, buyer's option, at 11c, and this may be regarded as the leading quotation. A "line" of 500 each was sold for May, June, July and August at 8¾c. The offerings are light and the stock very much reduced, but there is no necessity now since the completion of the Allegheny Valley Railroad for keeping a big stock up, as refiners can order from Oil City just as they want it, and, as a consequence, there is not the same chance to speculate in the article now that there was prior to the completion of this road. There has been a fair volume of business during the week, comparatively speaking, the sales, the aggregate, being somewhat above the usual average, but as already stated, the market closes dull and prices lower.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil was again dull and weak to-day, and while there is still considerable inquiry, both for present and future delivery, buyers are asking for concessions, to which as yet, sellers are unwilling to submit, and as a consequence, we have but few sales to record. We can report a "line" of 1500 bbls for April, at 24½c; 500 for June at 25c; and 500 for June, at 25¼c; also, 4500 bbls for future deliveries, on private terms. March may be quoted at 23½@24c, for the first and last half, and the last four months at 25½c. All the year, buyer's option, sold during the week at 30¼c, with one direct offer at 31c, but we presume that there are now no buyers above 30c.

BENZOLE—There has been quite as active demand for this article during the week, on Philadelphia account, and several thousand barrels were sold for March delivery at 15c, delivered there. After deducting the cost of barrels and transportation, and other attending expenses, the margin left for the refiner is certainly very light.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil by the Allegheny Valley Railroad to-day, were as follows:

Nat. Ref. Co.	960	Forsyth, Bro. & Co.	80
Clark & Sumner.	80	J. Gallagher	480

Baltimore Cattle Market.

BALTIMORE, February 27.—Cattle—The offerings at the scales during the past week amounted to 927 head, against 1214 last week Prices to-day ranged as follows: Old cows and scalawags, $4@5.75; ordinary thin steers, oxen and cows, $5.75@6; fair to good cattle, $6@7; fair quality beeves, $7.00@8.00, and the very best beeves, $8@9.75 per 100 lbs, the average price being about $7.00, gross. There is no change in prices since last week, farther than what is occasioned by the difference in the quality; there being but few common and inferior cattle offered, the average price is 25c per 100 lbs higher.

Sheep—The supply has been good during the past week, and with a fair demand the market has ruled steady at about last weeks rates. Prices ranged as follows: fair to good at 5@6c, and good to extra 6@7c per pound, gross, the latter in demand.

Hogs—The supply has been equal to the demand during the past week, and no change in rates. Prices ranged as follows: still fed hogs $11.50@12.50, and corn fed $12@12.75 per 100 lbs, net.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, February 29, 1868.

The general markets present no new characteristics worthy of special notice. With the exception of Provisions, which continue considerably excited and tending upward, there are no material change in prices, Flour and Grain and most other articles being just about where they were one week ago, and the demand only moderate.

GRAIN—Winter Wheat is scarce and in good milling demand; sales of Red at $2.45@2.47. No. 1 Spring may be quoted at $2.33@2.35. The arrivals of Barley continues exceedingly light, and all the good Spring that offers is readily picked up at $2@2.10. Oats steady at 65@66c, on track and 68@70c, in store. Corn appears to be a shade firmer, although there is no improvement to note in demand; 95c@$1, on wharf and track, and $1.05@1.10, in store. Rye is firmer, and may be quoted at $1.50@1.55.

FLOUR—The market is quiet and dull but prices are unchanged. We continue to quote at $10,50@11,25 for Spring Wheat; $12@12.50 for Winter Wheat, and $14@15 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is still quoted at $8@8.25, and Buckwheat at $4@4.50.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm and excited, with an upward tendency; we now quote Shoulders at 12c for Plain, and 13½c for Sugar Cured; 13½@14c for Ribbed Sides; 15c for Clear, and 17½c for Sugar Cured Hams. Prime kettle Lard, 16c, in tierces, and 16½@17c, in kegs. Mess Pork, $25.50.

LARD OIL—Is advancing in sympathy with the advance in Lard; we now quote No. 2 at $1, and No. 1 at $1.30.

SEEDS—There is a fair local demand for Cloverseed, and we can report sales at $8.00@8.50. Timothy seed is quiet at $2.50@3. Flaxseed is in good demand at $2.40.

EGGS—Owing to the diminished arrivals, are tending upward, and may be quoted firm at 33c @35c.

BUTTER—There is an active demand for prime to choice Roll, and we can report regular sales at 44@45c.

DRIED FRUIT—Is firm but unchanged. Regular sales of Peaches at 7@8c for quarters; 10@11c for halves, and Apples at 7@8c.

HAY—Sales at Allegheny Scales of 41 loads of Hay at $19@22; and 3 loads of Straw at $10@13.

GREEN APPLES—Unchanged and in good supply; regular sales at $3 to $5 per per bbl, as to quality.

POTATOES—Continue dull but unchanged; small sales in store at $1@1,05 per bushel, and $3@3.25 per bbl.

BEANS—Scarce and in demand; sales at $4@4.50, as to quality.

ONIONS—Scarce and held firmly by those who have them at $4 per bushel.

HOMINY—Dull; sales to the trade at $6,25@6,50, and $6,75 in a retail way.

Financial Matters in New York.

Gold Closed at 141⅝@141⅞.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 29, 1868.

MONEY AND GOLD.

Money easy at 5@6 per cent. on call. Sterling dull, at 9⅝@9⅞ for best bankers. Gold unsettled but decidedly firmer, on account of the decline in bonds in Europe in consequence of Sherman's speech on the funding bill; the price opened at 141¼ and closed firm at 141⅝@141⅞; market rather less active toward the close. A large amount of Treasury checks have already been issued for the payment of the interest on 10-40's.

GOVERNMENTS

Declined ⅛@⅜ per cent., but closed steady at the decline. The Government was reported a purchaser of 7-30's. Henry, Clews & Co. furnish the following 4.30 quotations: Coupons of '81, 110⅛@110⅜; do of '62, 109⅞@110⅛; do of '64, 107⅞@107⅝; do of '65, 108⅛@108⅜; do new, 106⅛@106⅜; do of '67, 106⅛@106⅜; 10-40's, 104⅛@104⅜; 7-30's 105⅞@105⅝.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede slowly at this point, with about five feet, eight inches in the channel. The weather yesterday was dark and dreary, with a drizzling rain falling at intervals, and the side walks were again in a very slippery and unsafe condition last evening.

There has been no arrivals since Saturday. The McCullough was due last night, and will be found in port this morning. The New York and Kate Robinson, from Louisville, are among the first boats due.

The Great Republic is laid up at Cairo, waiting for water to go to St. Louis.

Gen. Moorhead has just presented to the House six petitions, signed by a large number of citizens of the United States, manufacturers consumers and underwriters, praying that the Steamboat Law be so amended as to exempt oil of vitriol, sulphuric acid, muriatic acid and ammonia from the provisions of said act.

The contract for carrying Government freight to military posts and other points on the Upper Missouri river this season, has been awarded to Capts. Hazlett, Koontz, of this place, and Jacobs, of Brownsville.

The Grey Eagle cleared for Parkersburg on Saturday, and J. N. McCullough, Capt. Geo. D. Moore, is the regular packet for to-day, leaving promptly at noon.

The Maggie Hays, Captain Martin, and the Mary Davage and barges, Capt. Campbell, are loading for St. Louis, and will be the first boats out. The Maggie Hays, it is expected will leave to-morrow.

Capt. Isaac Whittaker leaves for St. Louis to-morrow to take charge of the office of the Julden.

Captain Stockdale's new mountain steamer Sallie, is now at the main landing ready to make engagements for the Upper Missouri—clear up to Fort Benton. Capt. T. S. Calhoun is in command.

The Argosy, Captain Vandergrift, with Mr. W. H. Scott in the office, is the regular Wednesday packet for Cincinnati, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind. Hereafter the Argosy will make regular trips between here and Cincinnati, leaving here every Wednesday.

The R. C. Gray left Cairo on Thursday for Pittsburgh, with 270 hhds sugar, 840 bbls molasses, and a lot of rice and sundries.

The Bellevernon passed Evansville on Thursday, en route from Pittsburgh to Saint Louis. The New State left Cincinnati for this port on the 27th.

The Bismark, about which a good deal has been said in the St. Louis papers of late, left that place on Thursday for New Orleans with 850 tons of freight.

Capt. Lightner has closed a contract with the Salvor Wrecking Company for the raising of the sunken steamer Kate Putnam—price to be paid, $5,000.

Capt. Thomas Ballard and other parties contemplate building to the hull of the steamer Leclaire No. 2, which sunk at Brandenburg some time last fall. The hull now lies on the bank near that town, and is in every respect staunch and seaworthy.

The parties who bought the steamer Cricket were Timmerman and Patterson, of Keokuk, and the price is stated at $11,500. She is to be used in towing Nauvoo stone for the Illinois.

The width of the Missouri river at Glasgow, as measured a few days since, was 800 feet, 1,478 feet at high water mark last summer.

Parties at Bellair have purchased the hull of the C. E. Hillman for $1,000, for wharfboat purposes. Her texas has been transferred to the little steamer El Paso for her cabin.

The Marietta Register, of Thursday, says: The wreck of the steamer Harry Dean was brought up last week, and now lies at Harmar.

The Cincinnati Gazette, of Saturday, says: The Camelia, Pittsburgh to Nashville, left yesterday, after receiving about 20 tons freight here. The Lucas, from St. Louis, passed on up for Pittsburgh yesterday, receiving but little freight here. Captain Geo. Baker, formerly of the Sherman, recently burnt, is in the city, looking for another boat.

We extract the following items from the Cincinnati Gazette of Friday: It is stated that within the last month the losses sustained by insurance companies of this city have been about $200,000, nearly all of the amount by the sinking of steamers insured. The Camelia arrived from Pittsburgh yesterday, and put off about five tons Cincinnati freight. She reshipped twenty-six tons on the Swallow, for New Orleans. She goes to Nashville. The Lorena arrived from St. Louis yesterday, and discharged 280 bales of cotton and considerable other freight. The bulk of her cargo being for Pittsburgh, she will leave for that port to-day.

SINKING OF THE IRON CITY.—The Red river steamer Iron City sunk a few days ago, four miles below Alexandria, and boat and cargo are a total loss. She was a stern-wheeler, of 218 tons custom-house admeasurement, and was purchased last fall by Captain John Gilham and his brother, Wm. T. Gilham, for the New Orleans and Red river trade; was in her fourth year, and valued at $16,000, with insurance to the amount $12,000 in the following Cincinnati offices, each having $3,000, namely: Buckeye, Central, Eureka and Boatmen's. As will be seen, the dispatch does not state whether the boat was bound up or down; but it is to be supposed, as the dispatch came from Baton Rouge that she was bound to New Orleans. The owners are both St. Louis men, and were for a long time associated with the Missouri river trade, Captain Gilham having, during the present season, been in command of the Only Chance, and it had been his intention to take the lost steamer on a voyage to Fort Benton during the present season.

Last Wednesday's Gallipolis Bulletin says: On last Sunday evening the Fleetwood sunk the little steamboat Banner at Rankin's Point. We have not learned the particulars, but the accident appears to have been caused by no want of care on the part of the officers of the Fleetwood.

BURNING OF THE STEAMER MAGNOLIA—A LAW SUIT TO RECOVER THE INSURANCE.—An interesting law-suit is now pending in Judge Rombauer's court. The plaintiffs are Marshall & Kilpatrick, whose foundry was partially destroyed by fire on Monday night, and the defendant is the Thames Fire Insurance Company of Cincinnati. The plaintiffs were the owners of the steamer Magnolia, which was destroyed by fire at the wharf on the 18th of June, 1866, and they seek to recover from the insurance company the sum of $5,000, for which sum the boat was insured in that company. The claim is resisted on the ground that the boat was set on fire. The whole amount of insurance on the Magnolia was $100,000, of which the Cincinnati companies had $38,000, St. Louis companies $15,000, and foreign agencies $57,000. The boat cost $220,000 about a year before she was burned, and was considered a failure, as she did not pay. If it can be proved that the boat was destroyed intentionally, the owners will lose the whole of the insurance. The ablest counsel in the city are engaged on both sides, and the trial will probably occupy several days.—St. Louis Dem.

River and Weather.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, February 29.—The steamer Paragon, from Cairo to St. Louis, was sunk four miles above Cape Girardeau, at five o'clock this evening. The boat and cargo are probably a total loss. No lives lost.

MEMPHIS, February 29.—Weather cloudy and warm with indications of rain. River stationary with ten feet to Cairo. Freights scarce. Departed—H. M. Shreve, for Vicksburg; Bertha, City of Paris and Adam Jacobs, for St. Louis. In port—Belle Memphis.

NASHVILLE, February 29.—River rising slowly, with three feet nine inches water on Harpeth Shoales. Weather cloudy and cold. Arrived—Alpha, from Shoals, with part of the Nightingale's freight. Departed—Talisman, for Cairo.

LOUISVILLE, February 29.—River on a stand, with six feet eight inches in the canal by mark. Weather cloudy and cool.

MEMPHIS, March 1.—Weather clear and pleasant; heavy rain this morning. Departed—Richmond, 800 cattle and a fine passenger trip; this morning the Strader light for Louisville; Mississippi, fair trip, for St. Louis. In port—Tempest, H. S. Turner and Geo. D. Salmer. The latter had been raised in the Arkansas, and it arrived here for Cincinnati.
